COAL DIGGERS CALL STRIKE ON THE KLAN

Mines Close As State Troops
Reach Herrin, Illinois

(Special to The Daily Worker)
HERRIN, Ill., Feb. 11.—Twelve mines are already shut down and a general strike of all the coal diggers in Williamson county is expected in labor's defensive fight against K. K. K. usurpers who have taken over the government of the county and arrested Hugh Willis, state official of the United Mine Workers of America, Mayor Anderson and Sheriff Galligan, framed-up charges of murder.

The strike comes as hundreds of militiamen, members of the 132nd Infantry, arrived in Herrin to S. C. Young, and his policemen, who have lavished upon possession of the city.

Victims of Herrin Case.
Willis' arrest on the charge of murdering Constable Cagle, the second of operators' forces to leave him. The first was as the father of a child who was killed in a fight with Willis, who was then immediately vindicated by a jury.

Accused with Willis by the Klan police under S. Glenn Young, is the Mayor of Herrin, John E. Anderson. Other defendants are: Alex. W. Byrd and M. J. Trout, county sheriff; John Davis, John Murray, J. W. Brown, Alvin Thomas, Sam Smith, James Jackson and Mrs. Thomas. All are held in the basement of the Klan Club headquarters, where Klansmen search.

Klan Arrest Sheriff.
Sheriff George Glavin, who sought to return the terroristic policies of the Klan, is lodged a prisoner in the city jail, also charged with murder. His direct evidence supports the Klan's charge.

S. Glenn Young, whom the United States invested with the authority of a federal "prohibition" enforcement agent as he directed the Ku Klux Klan raids on the foreign born miners at Williamson county, is in control of the local police forces in Herrin and working hand in hand with the Klansmen.

Soldiers Save Klan.
The military forces of the State of Illinois came while the Klan was men were fighting gallantly against a mob that was trying to break into the hospital to lynch Deputy Sheriff Layman who had been shot by Ford. The Klan police charged on the Young. The soldiers' arrival at double quick with fixed bayonets, saved the Klan gunmen from the anti-Klansmen who were coming in response to a hurry call.

Klan Passport Required Under Military Regime

HERRIN, Ill., Feb. 11.—With troops patrolling Herrin the Klan passport is required from all persons who would enter or quit the town limits.
Young, the Klansman, rules the town, guarded by Illinois police. Soldiers' fixed bayonets, surrounded him, and a machine gun is pointed at his desk. The Klan is a friendly arrest by the military to ally the resentment with which the town is seething.

Workers Standard of Living Falls As Rents Rise; Worst Victims Are the Negroes, Daily Worker Reveals

Great All-Race Negro Congress Opening Today Seeks to Weld Oppressed Against Oppressors

All previous attempts to bring American Negroes together will be overshadowed by the All-Race Assembly or Sanhedrin, which opens its doors in the Wabash avenue branch of the Chicago Y. M. C. A. today, for a week's deliberations.

That is indicated by the large advance guard of delegates from the 41 registered organizations. There is now assurance that several hundred colored men and women will participate in the United Front congress which seeks to weld the Race together against the lynching, disfranchisement, peonage and Jim Crowism that is going on in full blast today in violation of the ordinary criminal laws, the 14th and 15th amendments and all principles of human justice.

Minor, Fort-Whiteman Speaking.
Speaking on a theme which is near to the hearts of negroes throughout America, Robert Minor, editor of the Liberator, and Lovett Fort-Whiteman, of the Chicago Defender, spoke last night at the Wendell Phillips High School, 30th St. and Prairie Ave., of the heroic and genius of Frederick Douglass, the colored fugitive who helped to organize the forces of abolition north of the Mason and Dixon line.

The Minor-Fort-Whiteman meeting was the first of several supplementary mass meetings during the progress of "Negro Week."
Some of the most distinguished negro leaders in America will be present at the congress and there will be a full sized delegation of colored men from the Workers Party and the African Blood Brotherhood. The five Workers Party delegates are: Lovett Fort-Whiteman, Gordon O. Owens, P. Eugene Burton, Ethel Hall and Wendell Phillips.

Asking Recognition of Russia.
The congress will put itself on record in favor of the recognition of Soviet Russia, the colored fugitive who helped to organize the forces of abolition north of the Mason and Dixon line.

C.P.A. WILL MISS McADOO, LOS. LEADER

Farmer-Laborites Strong At Third Conference

(Special to The Daily Worker)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 11.—The Conference for Progressive Political Action opened its sessions here today with the greatest uncertainty for future plans prevailing among all except the left wing delegates, such as William M. Cramer, of Minneapolis, and others who came here determinedly committed to the formation of a Farmer-Labor party as opposed to the Conference's present program of non-partisan action.

Chester Pratt, Wisconsin Non-Partisan, who opposed the Farmer-Labor party movement at the Chicago, July 3, Conference as heard from the rank and file through referendum on the question and is expected to try and swing the conference for independent working class political action, ninety per cent of the Wisconsin league farmers were for a Farmer-Labor party.

Others Have Change of Heart.
There are other delegates here who have had a change of heart and are ready to desert the capitalist parties under pressure from the rank and file, but what their voting is will not be known until the conference opens tomorrow.

Close workers of labor's political activities know that the Conference for Political Action has been built up around the McAdoo for President and the McAdoo for Vice President. McAdoo was caught in the flood of oil that rolled out of the teapot. The officialdom of the McAdoo, the officers of the Railway Brotherhood, controlling the voting strength of the conference, have been without a candidate unless a deal has been struck with Senator La Follette. What these labor officials will do in the present difficulty will be interesting to watch.

One thing, is certain. Recent developments in the McAdoo scandal involving both old parties, and the continued depression in the agricultural sections has strengthened immeasurably the elements who want to build a solid political party of workers and farmers with the economic organizations of these groups as its foundation.

May Be the Fooding Thing.
It may be that the cautious leadership of the Conference for Progressive Political Action may be foolish enough to try and put the oil-spattered McAdoo over; again they may endorse La Follette either as a potential republican party candidate or a "third party" candidate.

Both of these proposals if made will be fought strenuously by its strongholds, left wing who will endeavor to get the Conference, if it is not right endorsement of the Farmer-Labor party movement is impossible to postpone any action and endorse and send delegates to the May 30th conference in St. Paul.

Teachers Strike, 200 Strong, When Pay Is Held Back

(By The Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, Feb. 11.—When 200 teachers were fired in Nuevo Laredo after the teaching staff had walked out for month for pay, the whole teaching body in the city went on strike, and one of them, a principal, is in jail for refusing to give up the keys of his school. The teachers are now locked out and the teachers and parents are planning open them by force.

A conciliatory commission is at work on the matter.

Forward to the Farmer-Labor Party To the Delegates to the Conference for Progressive Political Action

THE Republican and Democratic parties are discredited as never before in the history of this country. It has been generally known that these parties are the parties of Wall Street and the privileged class but the Teapot Dome looting of the nation has made this clearer than ever before. Senators, cabinet officers and even presidents of both political parties are exposed as the agents of big capitalists struggling for greater profits and looting the nation in the process.

On the other hand, the farmers and workers of this country are more determined than ever to create a political party which will represent their interests. The May 30th Convention of the Farmer-Labor forces at St. Paul in this country will bring into existence a great Farmer-Labor party which will fight the political battles of the workers on the land and the workers in the industries.

Will the Conference for Progressive Political Action in the face of these trends continue its bankrupt policies of trying to pick out republicans and democrats, and vote for these on the old party tickets, or will it align itself with the forces of the militant workers and farmers who are struggling forward to a Workers' and Farmers' Government of the United States? This is the question which the Conference at St. Paul will decide.

The reactionary leaders of the Conference, who are pledged to old party candidates, who want to make the farmers and workers again vote for a McAdoo, or some other so-called "good man," will do their utmost to continue the old policies.

These delegates in the Conference who really represent the interests of farmers and industrial workers will fight for the adoption of a new policy and the endorsement of the great Farmer-Labor Convention on May 30th.

The policy of the Conference for Progressive Political Action thus far has been a betrayal of the farmers and industrial workers whose desire for independent political action brought about the original conference.

The first conference in Chicago in February, 1922, sprung out of the desire in working and farming masses for a political party, separate and distinct from the old parties, which would fight their battles.

The industrial workers of the city had learned during the experiences in the years since the war that the existing government, whether a republican or democratic administration was in power, whether a good or bad republican or democratic was elected to office, was always on the side of the special privileged class and Wall Street.

The farmers have had the same lesson taught to them. They have seen the government use its power through the Federal Reserve Board to bankrupt the farmers of the United States. They have seen the government use its power in the support of the railroads that robbed the farmers through high freight rates. They have seen the government use its power to help the bankers to hold the mortgage on their land while refusing assistance to them. They have learned their lesson in the fact that millions of farmers have been driven from the land because they could not gain even a living under the conditions which Wall Street and the exploiters forced them to submit to.

These industrial workers and farmers express their discontent with the acts of the government in the demand for the organization of a political party which would fight their political battles.

They had high hopes when the first conference of farmers' and workers' representatives was called in Chicago. They still had high hopes after that conference, that the representatives who had gathered in Chicago would in Chicago would in Chicago adopt the program which they had refused to adopt in Chicago.

The action of the first conference at Chicago was a betrayal of the farmers and workers. The action of the second conference in Cleveland was an even greater betrayal.

Will the St. Louis Conference answer the demands of the industrial workers and farmers or will it again follow the wishes of a few reactionary leaders, like Johnston and Kenting, who have their own political game to play?

The Conference will be asked to endorse the May 30th Convention of farmers and workers. It will also be asked to endorse the republican or democratic candidates who have betrayed the farmers and workers many times. Will the Conference again make its stand with the agents of Wall Street or will it align itself with the farmers and workers?

Those delegates in the Conference who really represent industrial workers and farmers—and there are many such—will not again support the agents of the republicans and democrats in the Conference in betraying the Farmer-Labor movement.

The May 30th Convention is the hope of the farmers and workers of this country. In this Twin Cities, on May 30th, there will come into existence that organization which the farmers and workers desired to create when they forced their representatives to go to the first Conference in Chicago.

The May 30th Convention will nominate a Farmer-Labor candidate for president. It will adopt a platform representing the interests of the farmers and industrial workers of this country. The St. Louis Conference is the last opportunity of the Conference for Progressive Political Action to show that it really represents the workers and farmers. If it holds to its policy of endorsing republican and democratic candidates, it aligns itself with Wall Street no matter what it espouses. If it gives its support to the May 30th Convention, it will align itself with the workers and farmers and show that it really has an interest in their struggle for a better life.

THE TIME FOR DECISION IS AT HAND. IS THE CONFERENCE FOR PROGRESSIVE POLITICAL ACTION FOR WALL STREET, OR FOR A WORKERS' AND FARMERS' GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED STATES?

POINCARÉ DEPUTY IS PELTED WITH RED PROPAGANDA

Debate Assumes Novel Form in Chamber

(Special to The Daily Worker)
PARIS.—While a regiment of cavalry cleared the street outside the French chamber of deputies in a demonstration against the new tax proposed by the Poincaré government the opposition on the inside under the leadership of the communist and the radical socialist, Edouard Herriot, hurled everything from Billingsgate to maledictions at the government benches.
Andrew Maginot, minister of war, in a rage that left him shrieking like a whirling dervish, picked up a copy of L'Humanité, crumpled it into a ball and hurled it at Marcel Cachin, communist deputy. His only success in hitting a neighbor in the eye. Cachin, a more experienced sharpshooter managed to land a copy of the Temps, rolled it into a ball between the optics of the minister of war, shouting with rage the latter attempted to make an assault on the nearest radical deputy, but was held down by friends.
A scandal resembling the Teapot Dome affair was the cause of the first assault on the premier a few days ago. Funds in the payment of indemnities to certain individuals were discussed, but the battle shifted to the issue of giving the government authority to immediately take whatever measure of economy it considers advisable.

New Labor-Saving Cars Opposed by Ontario Workers

Toronto—Legislation to prohibit the use of one-man cars on street railways was asked, with denunciation representing labor, which waited on the government of the province of Ontario.

The denunciation asked further for an eight-hour day, relief of unemployment, regulation of the barter trade to require workers to undergo an apprenticeship, reduction of the provincial savings banks; inclusion of all workers, irrespective of age, under the workmen's compensation laws; extension of mothers' allowance act to include widows with one child; and the appointment of a representative labor on the Ontario Hydro-Electric commission.

Police Union to Enter Elections; Asks Labor's Aid

MONTREAL.—The local policeman's union is entering its fight with the city council into municipal politics. It proposes that 200 candidates of the union in the field at the coming city elections. Application for approval of this step has been made to the Montreal assembly of the Canadian labor party, the political body associated with the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. The assembly has refused the request to its executive for recognition, as the union is not affiliated with the party. The Montreal assembly of the Canadian labor party itself has already nominated one candidate for the municipal council.

Co-operatives in Flourishing State Down in Mexico

(By The Federal Press)
MEXICO CITY.—Thirteen new peasant co-operatives were founded in the state of Guanajuato alone during the last six months with the aid of the federal department of agriculture. The co-operatives have not only received government credits but free legal service, machinery at cost and other facilities. Freely they were given land and free water and lumber rights as a basis for their co-operatives.
Such facts explain why the peasants are rallying to the defense of the present government.

PRINCE OF WALES BREAKS HIS NECK THIRTEENTH TIME

Falling from Horse Favorite Outdoor Sport

(Special to The Daily Worker)
LONDON, February 10.—While the Prince of Wales was putting his mount over its fence at Billington Manor, near Ayr, today, both fell, resulting in a serious but not unusual injury to His Highness. The prince, after rising to his feet, attempted to remount when his horse broke his collar bone, said. "It feels that way," replied the prince as he staggered around his spirited steed, evidently with the intention of putting on the animal's back. His efforts were not successful.
It is said the prince loses horses on a higher level than his father and his frequent collisions with mother earth can only be accounted for on the theory that they are while Wales is more or less intoxicated. This is his thirteenth time. His Highness has brought grief to his collar bone.

WASHINGTON.—The American cruiser Rochester has again been dispatched to Honduras to protect the interests of the American bankers invested in that country.
The State Department announced today that a civil war is imminent in Honduras and that American interests are endangered. This means of course, the interests of Wall Street.
Many an old tar is today shelling salt tears over the degeneration of the U. S. navy into a collecting machine for the millionaires of America. Besides a knowledge of geography and the laws of navigation, candidates for captaincies in the U. Jobless Fighting on New Orleans Docks for Work

(By J. W. LEIGH)
NEW ORLEANS.—Conditions in this city from the standpoint of the workers are so deplorable that the official reports unemployment is on the verge of reaching new heights. There are added to the already long list of those who are seeking a job of any kind in order to live. The influx of scalps brought here by the shipping interests to replace the five hundred and colored longshoremen, the hundreds of strikebreaking electricians, the northern tourists who come to escape the winter, added to the thousands out of work and on part time increase the unemployment crisis.
The other day 500 able bodied men were waiting on the fruit docks, fighting for the opportunity of a job. An installment house advertised for salesmen and out of 68 who applied when told that the average earnings would not exceed 50 cents a day 60 clamored for the jobs. Only five men were selected.

TEAPOT SCANDAL SPLITS TWO OLD PARTIES ASUNDER

Factionalism Grows as the Leaders Fall

(Special to The Daily Worker)
WASHINGTON.—The Ford-Ford movement showed signs of reverting today to the small oil crew, leaving on the political arena. There was talk among Ford's friends of drafting him to run in spite of his announced support of President Coolidge.
This was but one manifestation of several, amid the oil crew from Teapot Dome, the adherents of politicians who are mightily concerned about the public's reaction to the evidence which has connected men of both parties, in some degree, either with the oil scandals themselves, or with the men who are principals in the scandal.
For McAdoo, his opponents were busy today writing him off as a possibility, while he and his friends vigorously refused to be written off. McAdoo will go before the senate tomorrow. Committee tomorrow to make the effort on which his political future probably depends.

The McAdoo clan is not indignant at the dragging of McAdoo's name into the oil scandal, says E. L. Debeney's testimony that McAdoo has been and is one of the lawyers. A clan is not indignant—it is filled with murderous fury at what is termed a stab in the back. McAdoo's speech to the senate committee tomorrow will be as forceful as he can make it.

In Republican ranks, Hiram Johnson serves notice he will not be "run" of the race. Johnson says the Coolidge forces spread the story of the oil scandal because they are afraid of the use he will make of the oil scandal issue against the administration. These tactics, he says, will prove a boomerang.
The Denby question is bothering the Coolidge leaders, because they say, there is no effective way to fight the demand for Denby's summary dismissal they regard as pure politics. A leading member of the Coolidge organization said today the president will not fire Denby if that course should cost him the presidency.

Lake That Drowned Milford Miners to Be Drained Now; 41 Deaths Prove Necessity

Crosby, Minn., Engineers Here Stated that before the Milford mine, in which 41 miners were drowned, can resume operations, the Whitmarsh mining company will have to drain Lake Foley, the body of water which Rabbit Lake, whose bottom the Milford drit penetrated, is a part.

(Special to The Daily Worker)
CROSBY, Minn., Engineers here stated that before the Milford mine, in which 41 miners were drowned, can resume operations, the Whitmarsh mining company will have to drain Lake Foley, the body of water which Rabbit Lake, whose bottom the Milford drit penetrated, is a part.
George H. Crosby, president of the Whitmarsh mining company, has indicated that the Milford mine will be reopened; before that can be done, 887 feet of water must be drained from the lake. The Whitmarsh mining company will incur little financial loss except that due to the interruption of operations as it carried out a fire insurance while the cost to the state in workmen's compensation will come close to $200,000, it is believed.
Pipes are now laid at Lake Foley to carry the water into Rabbit Lake on the other side of the mine.
It is this scheme that the miners urged as far back as last August and which if carried out would have saved the lives of the 41 miners.

COOLIDGE BOOST WRECKS LEAGUE IN NORTH DAKOTA

Farmers Quit Committee that Names "Cal."

(Special to The Daily Worker)
BISMARCK, N. D.—The Non-partisan league, controlled republican state central committee in session here has refused to resign its former action endorsing the Coolidge candidacy.
The motion to rescind was made by "Dad" Walker, who mercilessly lashed the action of the committee.
Committee Chairman Ray Frazier, rose to tears when trying to defend his and the committee's recommendation after J. E. Denby of Madock had accused him of "carrying around a pack" to be christened at the historic Potomac.
Frazier said he wanted to fight but the meeting broke up with mutual recriminations coming thick and fast. No blows were struck.

This meeting is taken by the forty league delegates who formed the North Dakota Farmer-Labor Party as complete proof of their contention that the league has degenerated into a cabal of the republican machine and has driven the last nail in the political coffin of the once militant farmers' organization.

DAILY WORKER'S Fears Realized in Brazen Whitewashing Report of School Board Denying 'Firetraps'

In one of the most brazen reports ever made in a whitewashing probe the Chicago School Board asserts that there is no such thing as a firetrap school.

This absurd falsehood is in flat violation of the report of the fire department and the board's own engineer and there were 50 firetraps and it is in itself a contradiction.

The DAILY WORKER's prediction that the school board's report would be a slick cut of whitewash for its own criminal negligence and indifference to the lives of the hosts of little ones entrusted to its care has been abundantly brought out.

Wooden Fire Escapes Ignored.
Such murderous devices as wooden fire escapes, wooden stairways, wooden buildings, erected without any real concern with safety and in places difficult of access were quietly and completely ignored in the board's report.

None of the "minor recommendations" which they made in their report, spending more than the meager sum, in spite of the $4,000,000 additional revenues that have been voted by the taxpayers when they closed the school last year for $1,000 on each $100 of taxable property, at the last election.

Only 30 schools were visited, or 20 less than the minimum number of visits required by the first payment. They said they were unable to make only minor recommendations.

The investigators were Frank McAdoo, of the bureau of fire prevention, William Denby, inspector for city building department and Cornelius J. Lamb, in charge of the bureau of repairs of the board of education.

The statement of one of the inspectors that many children were in school than they are at home, brought only a smile to persons who know the condition of our public schools. "It sounds nice, but doesn't mean anything," said one of the inspectors. "To say that more than tenements is being taken that they are safe or fit for use," is the way one person put it.

When Lamb tried to excuse the report of the inspectors by saying that he did not know of a fire in a public school during the last thirty years, people who are interested in school building problem pointed out that it would only take one fire to bring tragedy to the door of the schools of the city.

The recommendations of the inspectors consisted in such suggestions as that wooden partitions should be taken out of certain schools, that the suggestions made would cost the board of education any money which would be taken as an indication that it was practically decided by the board of education to do nothing.

Among the schools visited, the J. N. Thorpe school at 8915 Burling Ave. was taken as a representative of this school has 'one of the best fire escapes in the city. The fire escapes in the city are extremely difficult of access are ignored by the school board. It is not made plain that the sanitary condition of the school is not made plain. The DAILY WORKER found when investigating the Thorpe school that the fire escapes were not made plain.

Principal Is Asghat.
At the Brown school on Warren Ave., the inspector said they found the fire escapes satisfactory. They recommended that the enclosed fire escapes should be used in fire schools. The principal of the school was informed the superintendent of schools that he would not take the responsibility of using those fire escapes because he finds them dangerous. He has told the inspectors that he thinks that if the doors at the bottom of the fire escapes do not open, children would be sure to be smothered to death. This is the oldest school in the city.

At Branch No. 1, of the Mayfair school, which is a two story fire built in 1880, and which has wooden fire escapes, the inspectors recommended that a fire alarm box be put in front of the building.
They said that the Foster school on O'Brien St., should have several wooden partitions removed in the basement. This is one of the worst fire trap schools seen by the investigator for the DAILY WORKER.

At the Fallon school for crippled children at Wallace and 42nd St. the inspectors found that moving pictures were being shown, and in fact, the principal of the school recommended that the movies be discontinued. To recommend the inflammable film be used, would cost the board of education money and would run counter to their policy of economy. Many of the crippled children in the Fallon school never see a movie except at school.

Fake Eight-Hour Day, Liberal Bail for Labor's Vote

(By The Federal Press)
VICTORIA, B. C.—There is now further proof of the falsity of the proposed Eight-hour Day Bill which the present Liberal government has proposed to enact to enable it to run counter to their policy of economy. Many of the crippled children in the Fallon school never see a movie except at school.

33 SHIPMENTS OF SUPPLIES SENT TO RUSSIA BY F. S. R.

Splendid Relief Work Shown by Report

Thirty-three shipments of supplies were sent to relief the famine-stricken Soviet Russia during the two years the Friends of Soviet Russia were devoting themselves exclusively to that cause, says a statement issued by that organization.

The two year period closed with the fiscal year, July 31, 1933, shows a total of $1,182,000 was raised at a cost of $60,000 for office expenses, or 7 per cent of the total, and $109,000 for literature advertising and speakers.

In the first fiscal year a total of $725,000 was sent in 129 shipments. In the second year a total of $457,000 was sent in 100 shipments. Cash was made and about $50,000 was spent in Russia in a number of ways, such as conducting a page service, sending relief investigators into the famine-stricken areas, returned and reported, etc. This makes a total of $920,000.

Of this total we spent $129,000 as cost of gathering the funds, advertising, literature, speakers, etc., and $63,000, which is about 5 per cent for office (administration) expenses.

This accounts for a gross total of $1,182,000. A tabulated form of report would be in 129 pre-war Summary for two fiscal years of FSR activities:

33 shipments, totalling 350,544 lbs.—
Clothing.....	$250,000
Food, medicine, etc., for Russia.....	$250,000

Cost of Living in Canada Puts K. O. on "Higher" Wage

OTTAWA—Altho wages in six skilled trades in Canada are 77 per cent higher now than in 1913, a year, according to a bulletin of the Dominion department of labor, increased living costs caused the wage gain. The six trades included are building, metal, printing, electric railway, steam railways and coal mining. The statement of the department also sets forth that there have been similar or greater increases in the wages of common factory labor, miscellaneous factory labor and lumbering.

For the six trades mentioned the report covers the last 23 years. Taking the average wage in 1913 as 100, it shows a value of 67.8 as the average in 1901 and of 178.4 in 1933. Wages in the building trades in 1933, on a similar scale, are given as 161.4. In the metal trades 174.1, in printing 188.3; in electric railway 180.7; in steam railways 157.1; in miscellaneous factory labor 194.1; in lumbering 194.1.

The last issue of the Dominion Labor Gazette gives a series of different measures of the increase in the cost of living since 1913. According to these figures the cost of living in Canada in 1933 was about 151% to 162% of its 1913 level. In the last two years it has risen only a little more than held their own.

Aftermath

Nicolai Lenin, the premier of Russia, is "at last" dead, and has gone to his reward whatever that may be thought, according to the viewpoint of the average citizen. It is a statement with the same meaning as the statement that the late President Harding is dead. The statement is a statement of fact, and it is a statement of fact that the late President Harding is dead. The statement is a statement of fact, and it is a statement of fact that the late President Harding is dead.

Other men, who have "stood in the fierce light that beats against the throne," have enriched themselves, their relatives and their political friends. Napoleon made his brothers kings and viceroys, and his friends in Washington charged only for his expenses during the war of the American Revolution and secured land bonuses for his soldiers. Jackson believed in the doctrine that the victor begets the vanquished, and he was right. Lenin, like Lincoln, was just to his enemies if they would not approve his policy. Lenin, like Lincoln, was just to his enemies if they would not approve his policy. Lenin, like Lincoln, was just to his enemies if they would not approve his policy.

As David said of the death of Abner: "Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" Like Napoleon, Lenin was a man without a model and without a precedent. Like Napoleon, Lenin was a man without a model and without a precedent. Like Napoleon, Lenin was a man without a model and without a precedent.

While it is better to rub out than to rust out, yet too much is demanded by the present of the workers. The workers are not to be asked to do more than they can do. The workers are not to be asked to do more than they can do. The workers are not to be asked to do more than they can do.

But the other lesson of Lenin's life is the more important, and that is, in a prodigious age, saturated with cunning and greed, the never justed for wealth. Whatever may be said of the cruelties of the Soviet administration, the workers are not to be asked to do more than they can do. The workers are not to be asked to do more than they can do. The workers are not to be asked to do more than they can do.
