

AS WE SEE IT
By T. J. O'FLAHERTY.

A old lady known by the name of Sylvia Pearson was found dead in bed in London under circumstances which warranted the holding of an inquest. The testimony before the coroner's jury brot out the information that the old lady was a Russian princess, but very poor. Her husband had not been out of the house for twelve years and the princess had not had her clothes off for ten years. Knowing something about Russian aristocrats the coroner accepted this circumstantial evidence as sufficient proof that the lady was a princess.

GOVERNOR AL SMITH was nominated to make the run for re-election on the democratic ticket at that party's convention in Syracuse. He is supported by the late Theodore Roosevelt. The candidacy of Dr. Norman Thomas on the socialist ticket does not differ fundamentally from that of his avowedly capitalist opponents. Thomas does not believe in the class struggle, which leaves him clear of the work of the socialist camp, with his list of reforms to clip the claws of the capitalist tiger. The only candidate for governor in New York state to stand on a revolutionary platform that calls for the overthrow of the capitalist system is that of James P. Cannon, who is running on the Workers Party ticket.

IT looks as if William Hale Thompson, former mayor of Chicago, who has been sulking in the Len Spanish seat since that worthy gave the cream of the patronage to Col. George Fred Leland, the former chairman of the Illinois State Bar, but now his hated, has made peace with the governor or vice versa. Anyhow one of Small's lieutenants, Harry Klatko, was handed an elegant plum in the form of the superintendence of Lincoln Park at a salary of $6,000 a month. Thompson, who is still in the air, that deposited Fred Leland's man. The next scene in the political move may find Thompson stamping for Small and telling the world what a pure-souled statesman the financial wizard of the invisible Grant Park bank is.

THE much touted progressive Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania has come out in support of Brigadier General Smedley Butler, the Fascist marine officer who undertook the task of cleaning up Philadelphia with the assistance of present Coolidge. Just as it is of the KKK Klan that has made himself as welcome in the Quaker City as did Glenn Young in Williamson County.

NEWSPAPER dispatches from Tokyo carry the information that Japan may intervene in China should the United States not yield to Japanese interests. Perhaps the Chinese situation had something to do with Japan's refusal to sign the so-called arbitration scheme of the League of Nations. This arbitration proposition is a huge joke. England holds the machinery of the league in the hollow of her hand and has no intention of going into the web on the invitation of the spider.

THE classes between the great powers emphasize what the Communists are always pointing out, that there can be no peace on this earth until the nationalities are freed and also to protect the lost of the national bands against the highwaymen of other nations. Until wealth is produced for use and not for profit, there can be no peace and harmony. Only the international Communist movement is taking the proper steps to bring that about.

THE republican party is reported to be out for the political scalp of Senator Brookhart of Iowa, chairman of the committee that probed into the doings of the department of justice under Harry M. Daugherty. While the investigation is in the O. C. fold it is looking upon as a dangerous hoer from within, like his brother LaFollette, and Coolidge cannot forgive him from helping to lift the lid of the republican cesspool.

HARRY SINCLAIR, oil magnate and business contributor to the campaign funds of the republican party will not have to show cause why he should not disserve the Teapot Dome, until after the first of the year. By that time it will be known whether Coolidge shall have romped (Continued on page 2)

AMERICAN MONEY LORDS DECIDE FOREIGN COUNTRIES OFFER VERY TEMPTING FIELDS FOR PLUNDER

(By the Federated Press)

CLEVELAND, Sept. 28.—The real executive committee of the American state department has just adjourned in Cleveland after laying down, confidentially between themselves, the course of action to be followed during the next year by Secretary Hughes.

This unofficial advisory board is the Investment Bankers of America. The members of profit concerned this past year by American labor, the business decided that foreign countries offer the most tempting market. As Charles H. Sabin of the Asia Banking Corp. and the Guaranty Trust Co. of New York put it:

"The only way in which this country can find its rightful place in the world economy is to make available our surplus capital for use in foreign countries." (China and Honduras papers please copy.)

The fundamental campaign of the investment lords will centralize on tax reduction, a quarter of the tax bill has been appropriated for this purpose to the press and the movies. "We hope to reach 11,000,000 people of the taxpaying class with our message," the propaganda committee reported.

TO GIVE BOOST
TO WAR; IT PAYS

(Special to The Daily Worker)
PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 28.—Armed guards are blocking the entrance to every labor hall in the city which might be used as a meeting place by the striking silk-workers.

John M. Tracy, chief of police, has closed Turn Hall, a building located in the "Latin quarter" of Paterson, into which thousands of strikers crowd every morning to hear their leaders tell of the continued success of the workers.

Step Open Air Meeting.

Harry M. Wicks, member of the executive committee, one of the most militant figures of the strike, was the object of a furious denunciation on the part of Tracy, who has denounced his intention of preventing Wicks from speaking anywhere in the city.

A detachment of police yesterday barred a meeting of strikers in a vacant lot. The police ignored the plea of workers that the lot was owned by one of the strikers.

An attempt literally to starve the silk industry out of being encouraged by police who are preventing strikers from getting boost cards thus depriving them of the food which the strike committee provides.

In spite of the fact that many mill owners are now negotiating with the silk workers' committee, the strike committee from getting boost cards thus depriving them of the food which the strike committee provides.

On the cover of a leaflet is a photograph of a 16-inch gun fired before the American Iron and Steel Institute and Army Ordnance Association.

Gary Talked on War.

These two organizations held a joint meeting and demonstration at the Aberdeen Hall, in Baltimore, Maryland. The big gun spoke and so did Elbert H. Gary, big gun of the iron and steel institute, of which he is president. Referring to the war, Gary said:

"I am proud to say, on behalf of the great industry, which I have represented, that it is possible, before every silk worker in this country, to be held in vacant lots outside the city."

The fight will continue until Wicks is allowed to speak, members of the committee assure the strikers.

Strikers Keep Up Fight.

That the actions of Tracy can do nothing except to prolong the time which is to pass, before every silk worker in this country, to be held in vacant lots outside the city."

Ignore Nationalization Threat.

There was no mention of the threat of nationalization of the steel industry that the Wilson administration had to offer to bring the steel trust to time again during the war. The war profits of the corporation were three times the swollen peacetime rates.

TWO SOCIALISTS, HILLQUIT AND THOMAS, BALK AT DEBATE WITH SCOTT NEARING ON LaFOLLETTE

(By the Federated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Should a class-conscious worker vote for LaFollette?

Two authorities, one for each side, will engage in a public debate on this subject in New York October 5. Scott Nearing answers the question with a vehement No! Meyer London, former socialist congressman and a labor attorney, eagerly says Yes.

Norman Thomas, socialist candidate for governor of New York, and Morris Hillquit, socialist attorney, were first invited to uphold the LaFollette cause, then a meeting was to be Norman Hapgood, formerly editor of Collier's Weekly and now writing for Hearst publications. The Jimmie Higgins Book Shop, 127 University Pl., and other shops are selling tickets.

A DECISION has been made by the general headquarters of our army of party members. Like a regiment in battle, we are to move forward to the attack. With a broadside of three million pieces of literature we are to penetrate the fastnesses of the bourgeoisie and win converts to our ranks. The command has been issued. Here is the plan. Carry it out to the letter.

Every branch is to call a special meeting of its members for Sunday, October 12. Call it any time of the day, in a hall or at home, but call it every branch must. The entire party membership will meet for one definite purpose on October 12. A single aim, that of carrying out

Progressive Delegate Runs for President

(Special to The Daily Worker)
INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 28.—The manner in which General President William L. Hutchinson is running the carpenter's convention would make a Mongolian dictator turn green with envy.

The reactionary leaders of the American Federation of Labor are careful not to allow the rank and file the privilege of participating in the affairs of their unions beyond paying dues, unless the pressure from below cannot be resisted, but most of them make some pretense of allowing delegates to conventions go thru the forms of passing on questions brot up for discussion.

In the eyes of Hutchinson all issues not approved by him are dangerous to the organization, which translated into the language of the labor faker, "We are not to be beaten up by the bosses."

Thus a resolution from Local 181 of Chicago calling for the amalgamation of all craft unions into industrial unions until the aim of one union for each industry was achieved, was declared out of order by Hutchinson.

Against Sam's Policy.

A similar fate was met out to a resolution by the LaFollette agent, which called for the endorsement of the new political policy of the American Federation of Labor.

This meant the endorsement of LaFollette, Hutchinson, more loyal to the political policy of the A. F. L. than Gompers declared this particular proposal to be.

CANNON TO HIT CAPITALISM IN NEW YORK TALK

Gubernatorial Nominee in W. P. Rally

(Special to The Daily Worker)

NEW YORK. Sept. 28.—James P. Cannon, who will open his campaign as candidate for governor of New York state on the Workers Party ticket at a big rally on Thursday evening, Oct. 2, at 8 p. m., at Hunt's Point Palace, 935 Southern Boulevard, near 163rd Street, Bronx, today issued a stirring statement to the workers of New York.

"The United States, which is the wealthiest country of the world, denies to the millions of workers and exploited farmers the good things of life. Long hours of work or unemployment is the lot of the workers. Millions of farmers are bankrupt. And all this while the Gays, Morgans, Rockefellers, Fords, McCormicks and other great capitalists are getting ever richer."

Government Strikebreaker.

"The government is a capitalist institution serving the capitalists and grinding down the workers. The corrupt capitalist government breaks strikes by use of injunctions and strikes. The workers are compelled to work from the conditions of the capitalist system, the strikebreaker Coolidge, the Morgan-Rockefeller lawyer Davis, and the candidate of small business LaFollette. The workers can no longer let themselves be deceived by the socialist slogan 'Workers of the world, unite!' in the last eight years of speaking in the name of the working class when they lined up with LaFollette, a middle class candidate. The workers should support the Workers Party which stands for a workers' and farmers' government and the capitalist system of production. The workers and farmers of Russia have already set the example in this direction."

"The Workers Party is in the forefront of every struggle of the workers. The immediate program of the Workers Party is: The creation of a mass Farm-Labor Party, the inclusion of leaders and workers' control, compelling industry and government to pay wages to the unemployed, stopping the use of injunctions, police and soldiers against workers, release of all political class war prisoners, last of all, workers, opposing militarism and imperialist wars, recognition of Soviet Russia."

Will Explain Program.

"In my speech at the Hunt's Point Palace meeting on Oct. 2 I will endeavor to present our full program so that the workers present will be able to judge whether the Workers Party deserves their support."

Today he is to speak to the audience at the Hunt's Point Palace meeting, as Cannon is an exceptionally fine speaker. He will give the Communist viewpoint, the will expose the corruption of the old capitalist parties and the fanaticism of the LaFollette supporters and socialists.

P. F. in Fight on Bosses.

The Workers Party is making a lone but effective fight against capitalism. The socialist party in joining with LaFollette has up to the side of capitalism. The P. F. will expose the treachery of the socialist party which makes a false claim of being a party of the working class. No class conscious worker can afford to miss the opportunity of being present at the big campaign rally of the local candidates of the Workers Party. There will be a host of other speakers besides Cannon.

On Friday, Oct. 3, Cannon will address a meeting at the Queens County Labor Lyceum, 75 Forest Avenue.

White Guards Active.

MOSCOW. Aug. 29, (by mail)—The Constantinople papers report that a "committee for the reparation of refugees" has been uncovered there. It was organized by Russian White Guards and worked illegally with Bishop Anastasius at their head, whom the Turkish news books upon as the "head of the workers."

Today's action has been started against this "committee" which, according to the Taini, was also involved in espionage. The Turkish papers comment ironically upon the fact that in spite of the committee's fairly long existence, the police had "no knowledge" thereof.

Minor Replies to the Claims of Dr. DuBois

NEW YORK, N. Y. Aug. 28, 1924. EDITOR DAILY WORKER—Sir: In a recent number of your paper your staff writer, Robert Minor charged that I am responsible for the attitude of Liberal toward the Garveyite movement. I would like to say that I am not responsible for that attitude. I am a Coolidgeite and the capitalists to Liberia to prevent this proposed Negro migration. Will you permit me to say that this is an unmitigated lie. I was not sent to Liberia. I was attending this meeting at the Convention Center in Liberia and visited Washington, D. C., to see on my own initiative. I did not have consultation with the president or any official before I went to Garvey or any other matter. While there I was appointed by cable to represent President Coolidge at the Convention Center in Liberia. It was a purely commercial appointment without salary. The cabled instructions were published in full in the Crisis. I did not mention Garvey or his movement to President Coolidge or any of his officials. I did not have any official or any advice from them. I did ask my advice to Dr. DuBois, editor of "The Crisis" magazine, edited by DuBois, under DuBois own signature. I quote from that paper, pages 250 and 251, passages from Dr. DuBois' article entitled "Africa," as follows:

"I am back and ready the day, with a heavy heart, to speak of the days in which I have taken part and which have for me and others the widest significance, I can remember none like the first day of January, 1924."

"(Continuing with a recital of wrongs endured by Liberia at the hands of the U. S. senate and state department):

"It was then that the United States made a gesture of courtesy, but one fine and so unusual that it was epochal. It sent an American Negro to Liberia. It designated him as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary—the highest rank ever given by any country to a diplomatic agent in black Africa. And it named this envoy the special representative of the President of the United States to the President of Liberia. On the occasion of his arrival, the president of the Charles E. Hughes, secretary of state."

The above partially quoted editorial is immediately followed in Dr. DuBois' paper with an item headed "A Despatch," which is dated Monroe, Liberia, Feb. 1924, and which reads:

"The Associated Newspapers of the World—

"Dr. DuBois quotes his own speech to the inaugural assembly as containing these sentences:

"The President of the United States has done me the great honor of designating me his personal representative on the occasion of your independence. And I am sure that in this special mark of the president's favor, he has had in mind the wishes and hopes of Negro Americans."

"I have now the honor, sir, to transcribe to you the personal word of Charles E. Hughes, secretary of state:

"I have no means of knowing if Dr. DuBois' speech to the inaugural assembly has been published in the English language, but I am sure that the granting of the alleged Firestone concession in Liberia (if it occurred) will be the opening of a sad chapter in the history of the little Negro republic."

"I have now the honor, sir, to transcribe to you the personal word of Charles E. Hughes, secretary of state:

"I have no means of knowing if Dr. DuBois' speech to the inaugural assembly has been published in the English language, but I am sure that the granting of the alleged Firestone concession in Liberia (if it occurred) will be the opening of a sad chapter in the history of the little Negro republic."

The above partially quoted editorial is immediately followed in Dr. DuBois' paper with an item headed "A Despatch," which is dated Monroe, Liberia, Feb. 1924, and which reads:

"The Associated Newspapers of the World—

"Dr. DuBois quotes his own speech to the inaugural assembly as containing these sentences:

"The President of the United States has done me the great honor of designating me his personal representative on the occasion of your independence. And I am sure that in this special mark of the president's favor, he has had in mind the wishes and hopes of Negro Americans."

CLEVELAND MILL MAGNATES QUAKE AT W. P. LEAFLET

Throw a Couple of Fists When They See It

(Special to The Daily Worker)
CLEVELAND, Sept. 25.—Mill magnates in Cleveland who are supersensitive on profits and property rights were thrown into alarms which quickly spread to the newspapers when they saw a few pieces of Workers Party literature being distributed to mill workers.

Sedentary military terms were used to describe the propaganda work. The "bombardment" of literature, said to be "inflammatory," penetrated painlessly into the consciousness of the mill owners when they noticed that the leaders called for a workers' and farmers' strike and the oppression and exploitation. This demand was termed revolutionary.

Such bunk!

A silly season touch was given to the incident when claims were made that W. Z. Foster and C. E. Ruthenberg of the Workers Party, are profiteering handsomely thru the sale of the propaganda leaflets.

LOSE ONE ROUND, WIN ANOTHER, IN I. W. W. TRIALS

PRESO, Cal., Sept. 24.—The criminal syndicalists charge against Mick Hurley, John Martin, T. J. McDonald, Miles McCabe and Emil Staffo has been dismissed after nearly two years' activity by the defense. Three of these cases have been hanging fire since 1922, and the others, which have resulted in nine to three for acquittal. None of the men were accused of anything except membership in the I. W. W.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 28.—The appellate court has confirmed the conviction of the I. W. W. leaders of Edward F. and F. W. Thompson, both sent to San Quentin a year ago by the judge who sentenced Ford and Shultz to life. The men charged unfairness in selection of the jury, a special panel being selected and jurymen being accepted who acknowledged prejudices against the I. W. W. The case will be appealed.

SIK Strikers Win.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 25.—When 200 night operators of the Edward Bloom Silk Co. walked out, following a strike of the day men, the management agreed to meet the demand for day work for all. The management promised to install 90 additional looms.

Campaign Candor

Caligula could not have chosen a more fitting occasion to make his declaration of loyalty to the employing class than his address at the commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the First Continental Congress.

The president showed his extreme outspokenness in behalf of the biggest boozers of the country in his characterization of the Continental Congress and in his estimate of the key problem now facing the country. Mr. Coolidge lauded the congress for its moderation and put an especially favorable light on its consideration for the royal House of Hanover. He went on to cite the plea of the congress to George, following in part: "As Your Majesty enjoys the signal distinction of reigning over free men, we apprehend the language of free men cannot be displeasing." These significant remarks shed further welcome light on the why and wherefore of the Continental Congress laying the basis for a government serving the minority against the majority—the present United States government.

Then the republican standard bearer turned to a consideration of the railway problem. Mr. Coolidge told the country nothing new when he put himself on record as squarely opposed to taking the railroads away from the small group of capitalists. Mr. Coolidge is a frank defender of the class interests personified by the four great financial institutions in New York which hold close to one hundred directorships in trust companies and banks, and dominate the railways of the country. The president's dabbling in purple adjectives in defense of the Esch-Cummins railway law does not arouse any mystery in us. We know that this law which was framed by the bankers, railroad lawyers, and other lobbyists, has brought into the coffers of the financial oligarchy hundreds of millions of dollars. Section 209 alone has netted nearly one billion dollars to the rail kings.

When Coolidge brought forward the argument of a top-heavy bureaucracy being an inherent feature of government ownership of railways, he was right. Capitalist government ownership of railways offers no solution to the difficult problem. The genuine socialization of the railways, which is the only solution, and other public utilities can come only thru the establishment of a workers' and farmers' republic. Of this, Coolidge is a sworn enemy.

Yet, it must be noted that the Philadelphia speech delivered by Mr. Coolidge is far from the frankest and the most outstanding of any of the employing class candidates in the present campaign.

Poisonous Propaganda

Whenever a worker dare think out loud, the horde of well-kept press agents of the employing class yell "propaganda." When workingmen revolt against unspeakable conditions of employment, the defenders of the faith of the exploiters raise a howl to the heavens against the ravages of "propaganda." Usually the hue and cry of "foreigners" follow.

The Communists have never been dismayed by the dishonest talk of the bosses and their champions. We have always pointed out that propaganda has its proper place in all wars, the class war not excepted. We have repeatedly emphasized to the workers and dispossessed farmers that the sooner they learn to put their case as effectively and before a large number of the laboring masses as the employing class, the sooner will they achieve their freedom from exploitation.

The ethic of capitalist morality, the essence of capitalist right and wrong, the criterion of capitalist virtue is this: will it help our class interests? Of course, this question is not always put forward so pointedly and consciously in the field of actual class conflicts. But in effect, the trend in this direction is very marked.

We have in mind the American Education Week which has been set aside by the government for the period of November 17 to 23. The topics that are to be discussed in the schools throughout the country run as follows: "The Constitution—the Bulwark of Democracy and Happiness," "The United States Flag is the Living Symbol of the Ideal and Institutions of Our Republic." Then there are set aside "Constitution Day," "Patriot Day" and "For God and Country Day."

Talk about propaganda! Talk about poisonous propaganda masking behind the name of education! Will the editors and the liberal truth-seekers of the country organize a crusade against the dangerous toxin that will be instilled in the minds of the youth of the country in this week? Even to pose this question is the acme of foolishness.

We warn the workers, the poor farmers and the youth of the country not to allow themselves to be misled by these poisonous propagandists.

The Chicago Tribune believes there is cause for a furrowing of 100 per cent brows in the fact that the gigantic sum of one billion dollars is stolen every year from American business by those charged with its operation, employees, officers, etc.

This does not include the fief exacted by highwaymen and outside operators. What about it? This is only a drop in the bucket compared to the loot taken from the workers of America by the capitalists every year. The Tribune participates in this loot and is therefore silent.

The evolution of these worthies is complete. Mr. Spargo, who has spilled oceans of ink against the Soviet Republic, once posed as a swingster in the socialist party. To him, the doctrines of Marxism were not revolutionary enough and, in despair, he turned to syndicalism.

And the indomitable enemy of the workers, Mr. Walling, who has spilled oceans of ink against the Soviet Republic, once posed as a swingster in the socialist party. To him, the doctrines of Marxism were not revolutionary enough and, in despair, he turned to syndicalism.

Complete Mobilization of Party Membership Ordered

Action Will Involve Every Party Branch—Constitutes an Unprecedented Event in Party Annals—Obedience to Decision Expected Without Single Exception

By ALFRED WAGENKNECHT

of this action is easy to comprehend and to carry out. Nothing will be left undone by the national office of the party to facilitate each step in this work. Post cards, one for each branch member, will be mailed the branch secretary, which he is to use to call the special October 12 meeting. The entire party press will carry the details of this mobilization. Every federation secretary will assist in making all language branches understand.

The request that every party member give fifty cents for the literature he is to distribute, is the very least that can be asked of a Communist. This is not one member but who will understand that a Communist is not one who is a member of the party, but who gives his regular routine of daily existence. A Communist is one who gives his regular dollar he can spare and every hour away from the bosses' machine to the movement. Our movement has proportions. It's to be a world revolution. And that is not at all like getting a shave or revitalizing a Ford.

The Absolute Minimum.

Nothing will be placed in the way of every member distributing as many pieces of literature as he desires. That is a big point in this distribution. The "absolute minimum" is not there in how much every party member cares to do. But an absolute minimum has been decided upon. Below this is not a single party member shall go. Every party member shall distribute:

100 Campaign Leaflets	25c
25 Campaign Stickers	5c
2 Campaign Pamphlets	15c
10 Daily Workers	10c

137 PIECES, TOTALLING 50c

This 137-piece literature unit to every party member means a total distribution during the week of October 26 to November 2 of—

2,200,000 Campaign Leaflets
550,000 Campaign Stickers
44,000 Campaign Pamphlets
220,000 Daily Workers

3,014,000

Three million pieces of party literature in one final onslaught is a task which our party can carry out. It must carry out this task because a survey of the election campaign activities so far carried on have proven that the workers and farmers are surprisingly more interested in our Communist campaign than the most optimistic of us at first thought. The strafe vote taken in the Chicago shops and factories is an irrefutable indication. This welcome interest in our candidates and principles must be developed to a peak, must be taken advantage of in a way that will make our propaganda the talk in every shop, mine and mill.

It Should Be An "On the Job" Distribution.

We are fully aware of the fact that an "on the job" distribution has its dangers. But Communists face dangers. More than this, they face them in a judicious manner. We aim to win. And just as superior strategy is necessary to come out victors in the class struggle, so also are well-planned maneuvers necessary to beat the boss in the shop to it. It can be done. The leaflets and stickers can be placed at advantageous points where the workers will see them and read them, should open distribution branches understand.

The pamphlets and the DAILY WORKERS should be given or sold to those who in conversation show most interest in our movement. The names and addresses of interested workers should be secured. Subscriptions for the Daily should be asked for. Where shop distribution cannot be taken place, where members are not able to leave house to house.

No matter what is done, you speak for the rank and file. This event, even if you is dead and dumb. The minimum energy required in this undertaking is to hand out the literature. Any one who has hands can hand out. Sympathizers, non-readers of the Communist press are prohibited from enlisting. A remittance of fifty cents for each 137-piece literature unit desired, will bring you your weapons for the fray by return mail.

"All Together!"—Is the Slogan.

As stated, it is a distribution. There shall not be any refusals. Like one mighty machine the 22,000 Workers Party campaigners will meet upon the same day, October 12, in every one of our 1,297 branches. Like a well-disciplined and unconquerable force, the 22,000 branches will forth during the week of October 26 to November 2 and place this million pieces of literature into the hands and heads of three million workers and farmers.

We are an invincible vanguard. But only then when we do lead the masses. Therefore this complete mobilization of our membership, and that of the Workers Party will grow and its might following will increase.

Every onward on the job!

JOSEPH MANLEY, Campaign Manager.

C. E. RUTHENBERG, Executive Secretary.

Rosen in Fight on Hutchenson

two capitalist parties, like his peer in reaction, John L. Lewis.

Tired of Hutchenson.

The carpenters are sick and tired of Hutchenson, but he has straddled himself around their necks like the Old Man of the Sea and it will take a herculean effort on their part to get rid of him. An example of the manner in which he directs the Brotherhood can be seen in his invitation to a manufacturer of metal trim to speak at the convention in behalf of his quarrel with the officials of the Sheet Metal Workers Union to which organization should have given the honor of the erection of metal trim.

The speaker, Mr. Edward Zahner, general manager of the MacFarlan Metal Products company at LaPorte, Indiana, told the delegates that he was a sheet metal worker before he became a manufacturer and was in much favor in favor of the carpenters being given jurisdiction of metal trim.

Bosses Give Advice.

But other manufacturers attend conventions of Sheet Metal Workers who support the latter's contention that metal trim is within their jurisdiction.

Thus the workers are kept fighting while others by two sets of labor fakers while the bosses continue to profit by their division.

The amalgamation resolution which would put an end to this civil war within the building trades and the only solution for jurisdictional quarrels was even refused consideration by the ushers of the national craft council in the interests of Hutchenson. To hold a meeting in a labor union, on the basis of his past record, was inadequate.

Surfice it to say, that a more useful tool of the bosses does not hold office.

in any union affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and this is saying a good deal considering the composition.

Willie K. Brown, another candidate in neither T. A. Brown, another good red herring." As a militant he would make an admirable secretary for a Young Men's Christian Association branch. The only purpose his candidacy serves is to put the opposition against Hutchenson.

Rosen Only Progressive.

The only progressive candidate in the race is Morris Rosen, the official spokesman for the Old Age Home, declared himself in favor of frequent action by delegates from the rank and file. The officers would be more in touch with the desires of the rank and file by more frequent conventions.

Delegate Mulcahy, of Providence, R. I., candidate for general executive board who was beaten up by Hutchenson's thugs, because of his opposition to the Old Age Home, declared himself in favor of frequent conventions.

Delegates were to meet him in front of his home, no doubt in tribute to his treatment by the thugs. He followed the general lead given by Delegate Rosen. Delegate Tom Ryan, New York, and others also spoke for the amendment.

Conventions Too Expensive.

The principal argument against the motion was made by general secretary of the AFL, Fred W. Burgess of Philadelphia, in support of the amendment that declared that if the business of the union is properly conducted there is nothing to fear from publicity, either from the public or from the membership. He believes everything should be published in the journal that affects the union and only supported the amendment as a compromise.

Hutchenson followed with a speech, saying that the Brotherhood and its officers were assailed by enemies from without and within and this was his justification for his amendment.

Delegate Rosen, Hutchenson's opponent for the presidency, said that regardless of whether all reports should be published in a semi-public magazine or not, the members of the union would be entitled to all information concerning the management of the organization.

All members are entitled to know what is going on, whether they are supporters or opponents of Hutchenson. The union is the property of all the members, declared Delegate Rosen. Frank Duffy spoke last and as usual supported the machine.

Task is Difficult.

This conclusion proves again that the task of the militiamen in conducting the movement is no light one and calls for energetic action on the part of those trade unionists who want to take the direction of the organizations out of the hands of reactionary tools of the bosses. That the progressives are determined to do this is a fact.

They will be changed by local.

Delegates agreed.

General president of the AFL, John L. Lewis, declared that it was impossible to change the constitution as the officers never send out any question for referendum to the rank and file.

in the convention.

In his weak defense of his brain child, which corresponds to Frank Farrington's water power project pipe-dream, and his class collaboration system used in the Westinghouse company, he tried to prevent organization of workers to prevent organization of workers.

Man Opposed to Plan.

Delegate Van Meter of Cincinnati, reported that under the "B. & O." plan the men cannot stand up against the speedup which is to be imposed and the men are quitting their jobs.

He declared it significant that the Glenwood shops, where the B. & O. plan is in effect, were not represented for the employers, but it is better to sit down around a table and try to convince and persuade the employers."

Progressive delegates to the convention said that the "B. & O." plan would bring in a new era, that the convention had not been held in time, and wanted to get to know the workers were
