

THE DAILY WORKER PROTECTS

MANY CITIES TO OBSERVE DAILY WORKER'S BIRTH

Hold Celebrations from Coast to Coast

The first anniversary of the DAILY WORKER will be celebrated by all Workers Party branches and district organizations from coast to coast with dances, entertainments, balls, and meetings which have been arranged by the various sections of the party.

These celebrations will commemorate the wonderful strides that have been made by the Communist movement since the first English language daily Communist newspaper was born just a year ago.

The first DAILY WORKER birth day party will be celebrated in Chicago Monday evening, Jan. 12, with a program of music, official dinner and speeches at Imperial Hall, 2409 N. Halsted St. Supper will be served without charge at the Chicago celebration, which will jubilate over the splendid accomplishments of the past year and discuss the prospects of the DAILY WORKER for 1925. A new paper will be made up by the editors and members of the staff, and it is promised will be "just full of good news and cartoons." The Chicago affair will be in charge of Comrades Gusie Kruse and Natalie Gomez, of the business office of the DAILY WORKER.

The DAILY WORKER anniversary celebration in New York will be combined with the observance of the anniversary of the death of Karl Liebknecht, and Rosa Luxemburg. The district New York office of the Workers Party and the Young Workers League have issued a statement which says: "On Jan. 11 the Communist youth the world over will commemorate the death of Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, who six years ago were brutally murdered by the military henchmen of the socialist leaders of Germany. This proof that the strata of the working class are doomed and that the revolutionary movement of the workers—the Communist movement—is rapidly advancing and gathering more and more strength to its fold, we will have at the same time the celebration of the first anniversary of the DAILY WORKER, the first Communist daily in the world in the English language."

ATTENTION CHICAGO DELEGATES OF LABOR DEFENSE AND I. W. A.

The Chicago Conference for Defense and Relief comprising all branch delegates to the Labor Defense and International Workers' Aid, will meet Saturday afternoon, Jan. 10, 5:30 a.m. at Greek Hall, 722 Blue Island Ave.

MILLER, COMMUNIST, IS MEMBER OF NORTH DAKOTA STATE LEGISLATURE

By ALFRED KNUTSON.
(Special to The Daily Worker)

BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 8.—The North Dakota legislature has just started its session here and the political line is as follows: The nonpartisan legislators have control of the house of representatives and the "Y. A." or independents, control the state senate by one vote. The legislature who are house members are "raring" to go and apparently "full of teeth," firmly believing that it will be possible for them to really do something by getting their "progressive" legislation, evidently forgetting that they are operating in a capitalist legislature and within the framework of the private business system of capitalism, which of course renders impossible any changes that will really help the farmers.

The New Governor, A. G. Lurie is the now nonpartisan league governor. He is pretty much to the right of even the average farmer in North Dakota. His calendar can be easily ascertained thru statements he has made since his election. The nonpartisan league, which is a business men's party, and who are business men should all work together for the good of North Dakota. Such a policy will naturally be under the more readily to exploit them.

Communist on Job. Comrade A. C. Miller, working farmer, is the only Communist member of the state legislature. He comes from Williston in the north western part of the state and was elected to the house of representatives, representing the first legislative district. He has been a member of the Workers Party for over a year. In an interview Miller declared that it was a hopeless task for the farmers and workers to expect any relief under the capitalist system, and that the work of a real workers' legislative should be directed towards educating all exploited farmers and workers to realize the necessity of building up their own system.

MELLON'S GANG GROOMS PEPPER FOR FAT JOBS

Making Horse Trades with Pinchot

(By The Federated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Andrew Mellon, secretary of the treasury having acquired control of the republic, is preparing to change his position in the Philadelphia, Pa. machine in the U. S. senate.

He is expected to find a place on the federal supreme court, or a big European embassy, for Sen. Pepper who has still four years to serve. Then he will put former Gov. Sigmond in the senate.

If Gov. Pinchot, in return for certain concessions by Mellon as to appropriations from the legislature to carry out some of Pinchot's minor plans will agree to name Sigmond successor, the latter will resign within the remaining two years of Pinchot's term otherwise Mellon will have to wait until Pinchot leaves office.

Snooks Will Snoop in Atlanta Federal Prison After Jan. 20

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Apportionment of John W. Snooks, warden of the Idaho state penitentiary, as warden of the Atlanta Federal prison, was made official today by Attorney General Stimson.

Snooks will take office about Jan. 20 or soon as he can adjust his affairs in his new post.

ITALY UNDER MILITARY LAW OF MUSSOLINI

Communists Tortured in Prisons

(Special to The Daily Worker)

ROME, Jan. 8.—A state of martial law exists today in Italy in everything but name.

Prisons have been ordered to take any emergency measures they wish to keep the Fascisti in control of the country and suppress the opposition, regardless of the present judicial status.

The jails are being filled with Communists and workers who are against the Fascist rule of terror. These prisoners are being tortured in an effort to make them "confess" crimes against the state. Cases have come to light in Rome of prisoners who have had their eyes gouged out, their hands and feet crushed and their bodies mutilated.

The Fascists are continuing their campaign of suppression of opposition organizations. More prisoners are being arrested and all but a few of the Fascist members who were jailed for violent crimes have been released. Former Premier Giolitti is expected to become the new leader of the Aventine opposition.

All under-secretaries of state party were not members of the Fascist party. The Communist movement is being crushed under the pressure of Mussolini.

Steno Rusticani, a Fascist and foreign correspondent of the New York Italian daily newspaper, Il Progresso Italiano, has been arrested and quizzed by the state. He is charged with being implicated in the Matteotti murder.

The Communists are demanding a social revolution and the seizing of power by the workers, as the only means of crushing Fascism for all time.

Fascist police raided the Communist headquarters in Milan, and announced they had "seized documents incriminating ten dangerous leaders of the party." The Fascists are declaring everyone who opposes their rule of bayonets as "dangerous."

OMAHA T. U. E. L. TAKES UP CHILD LABOR BATTLE

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 8.—The Omaha general union of the Trade Union Educational League is planning to introduce a child labor bill in the Nebraska legislature.

The Workers Party is also getting into the fight here. The City Central Committee has made overtures to the local independent (LaFollette) club, suggesting a united front campaign on the child labor question.

While time has been too short yet for definite action, the activity of the T. U. E. L. and Workers Party militants has already aroused considerable discussion in the local labor movement.

PROGRAM FOR W. P. ADHERENTS IS ADOPTED

Pledges to Struggle for Workers Only

An enthusiastic meeting, held at 722 Blue Island Ave. last night, ratified the aldermanic candidates and the program on which they will seek to rally the workers of Chicago.

The major portion of the evening was spent in discussing the program, for workers are interested in definite measures for fighting the strugglehold which capitalist political henchmen have on the Chicago workers. A program of striking every phase of municipal administration which is of interest to Chicago working men and women was adopted.

Spoke Only for Workers.

The introduction states: "The Workers Party (adherents) Party is what its name implies—a party of and for WORKERS. We do not repeat the ridiculous pretensions of the other parties, that we have a program which will suit all classes. We state frankly our program will bring to comfort to the working class, merchant, price treatment and real estate classes who now hold Chicago in their covetous grasp. But to all workers and working class organizations struggling for the advancement of the work, we pledge our loyal support and aid at all times—by word and deed."

Exposes Real Issues.

"Now, when great numbers of workers are suffering from unemployment, when police and injunctions are called in by the bosses to break all strikes, when the working class standard of living is being steadily forced down, when a significant municipal traction strike is being engineered, when working class children are suffering from inadequate and improper schooling—it is necessary to come forward with a program which exposes the real issues in the municipal elections to be held on February 24—a program which faces the issues frankly, and which rallies the working men and women of Chicago for struggle against the capitalists on the basis of the immediate needs of the workers."

The issues covered by the program include: Public utilities, traction, unemployment, education, police, the issue of the injunction against workers, child labor, racial discrimination, municipal employees, contract letting, housing and the right to vote.

Each of these issues is not only treated in a general way, but also practical ways and means of attaining the end sought are pointed out. The working class candidates of the Workers Party are all pledged to this program.

Revolution Only Real Solution.

The program concludes: "The above program of immediate demands touches issues which are vital to every working man and woman in Chicago. Everyone of these issues is a direct outgrowth of the present system of production for private profit—that is, of capitalism. Because of the monopoly which the bosses maintain over the factories, machines, etc., the workers are forced to toil long hours for meager wages, while the goods that they produce are taken by the capitalists. With the capitalist domination of schools, press, etc. it is obvious that the workers have no real opportunity in this election, capitalist 'democracy' is nothing but a sham. There can be no real solution of the great problems weighing down upon the workers' until capitalism is overthrown—the workers seize control of the government, lower and take over industry. This will be accomplished by the establishment of a dictatorship of the workers."

T. U. E. L. CALLS UPON ALL WORKERS TO UNITE AROUND LABOR DEFENSE COUNCIL AGAINST WHITE TERROR

In a statement issued by the national committee of the Trade Union Educational League, it calls upon all militant workers to form a united front with the Labor Defense Council to fight the "criminal syndicalism" laws and "sedition acts," instruments used by the employing class of the United States to transmute over militant workers and organizations. We print the statement in full:

T. U. E. L. STATEMENT

The Trade Union Educational League has, ever since its birth, urged the workers to solidify their forces against the menace of white guard suppression going under the guise of new, so-called "criminal syndicalism." It was the efforts of the T. U. E. L. that aroused the union support among the unions for the Communist whose convention in Michigan was raided by the secrets of Daugherty and Burns in 1922.

Workers Fortify For Attack.

Today there is a new cause for unity of all workers. Communist, Fascist, and non-Communist organized and unorganized, of all races and conditions, the supreme court of Michigan has upheld the conviction of C. E. Ruthenberg under this infamous law, the charge being only one of "assembling" with other people not yet convicted of crime, and on Monday, Jan. 6, Ruthenberg was sentenced to from three to ten years in the Michigan State Prison. He was a well-known labor leader and a member of the Trade Union Educational League has begun a new campaign to unite all workers who believe in defending any worker imprisoned by the capitalist class for class reasons, around the Labor Defense Council, with office at 161 West Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

Trade Union Educational League.

The Trade Union Educational League has issued a call for all militant workers to unite in their own and fraternal organizations, the issue of the defense of the victims of the Michigan "criminal syndicalism" law. Among the first to respond is local 2174 of the United Mine Workers, Christopher, Ill. The resolution of these coal miners, which appeared in the DAILY WORKER Jan. 6, should serve as a model for every worker who will take up the fight in his local union to defeat the tyrannical reaction in the state of Michigan and free all the workers now standing in the shadow of prison.

SENATE GIVES MUSCLE SHOALS TO POWER TRUST

Underwood Bill Passed by Senate

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8.—The senate today passed the Underwood bill, turning the Muscle Shoals project, worth many millions of dollars, over to private interests.

It is well known in Washington that the huge power trust, controlled by J. P. Morgan and his bankers, was behind the Underwood bill. During the discussion of the Underwood bill a Washington newspaper charged that "if the Underwood bill passes, a steel will have been put over on the people of the United States which will put Teapot Dome in the shade."

The power trust, which will eventually control Muscle Shoals thru the workings of the Underwood bill at millions of dollars below the cost of the power project to the United States, owns the Alabama Power Corporation. This bill will eventually control Muscle Shoals.

Muscle Shoals consists of several huge dams, housing and generating a large tract of land, and large iron manufacturing projects.

Senator Newton D. Bowditch, of the retention of the project by the government, was sidetracked by the senate.

STRIKING MINER MURDERED AFTER MAKING SPEECH

Shot Down on His Way Home from Meeting

(By Federated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The hard coal strike near Scranton, says reports from the local capital, Scranton, Pa., and a leading strike committee, and secretary of the Even Colliery local, says that the official walkout against the Pennsylvania Hills Colliery, Scranton, was slain by gunmen near Pittston. He was a short, strongly built young man of 31, full of confidence in the strikers' cause and active night and day in the strike. Pace had a wife and three children but he said he and the rest had no thought of discontinuing the fight until they got assurance that their grievances would be adjusted.

The miner reports give no inkling of the murderers. Fourteen steel-jacketed bullets are said to have pierced his body as he was returning at night from a strike conference. The murderers escaped in an automobile.

Pace told me of some hostile interference by the state police. It occurred after he had delivered a strike speech. The Pennsylvania Hills Colliery company agents had called a meeting of miners in the union hall of the Underwood local, several miles out of Scranton. About 150 men assembled out of 1,200 members of the local. The company men urged the men to go back to work.

Pace took the floor and exposed the trick that was being played on the men—it was not a regular union meeting. He urged the men to stand by the fight. As he left the hall, tailing a group of workers with him, six state policemen—the "cossacks" of the III-fisted—waited him and searched him, finally releasing him. But the work of Pace and others was successful.

The back-to-work movement was a fiasco, about 35 responding, instead of the 450 announced in the papers by the company. (These figures were verified by the writer by a Scranton Times reporter.) Later the local union called its own Underwood meeting, with 500 present and a ringing resolution to stay on strike was passed. Pickets were set on the line.

The killing of Pace is likely to have an opposite effect from that which the murderers intended.

Brookhart's Seat in Congress Is Contested Before U. S. Senate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Informal notice of the contest of the seat of Sen. Brookhart, republican of Iowa, in the new congress was filed in the senate today by Senator Robinson, democrat of Arkansas, minority leader.

The petition of contest was filed by Robinson for Daniel F. Steck, democratically defeated by Brookhart in the 1922 election.

T. U. E. L. Meeting in St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 8.—The St. Louis branch of the Trade Union Educational League meets Thursday evening, Jan. 13 at 8 o'clock at Workers Hall, 2112 No. 14th street. John Bram will lecture on the Trade Union Movement.

CAPPELLINI IS DENOUNCED AS UNION BETRAYER

His Smoke Screen Is of No Avail

(Special to The Daily Worker)

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 8.—When Rinaldo Cappellini, district president, United Mine Workers of America, called a mass meeting of the striking anthracite miners to "explain" things yesterday afternoon he brought upon himself the most complete defeat a union betrayer has ever suffered in this district.

The Pittston armory was crowded with 1,000 angry miners and Cappellini caught light hell.

They called him "traitor" and accused him of selling them out. They howled down his accusation that Communist things were his only opponents and for those who sided with capitalists he stood alone on the platform.

Can't Fool Them No More.

They called him "traitor" and accused him of selling them out. They howled down his accusation that Communist things were his only opponents and for those who sided with capitalists he stood alone on the platform.

The Italian coal miners, aroused to a high pitch of indignation at the murder of Don Pace and Steve Proby, and the brazen treachery of the district president, were determined to attack Cappellini.

Cappellini was badly disoriented by his role of cooperator agent. The strike of the miners was again in the air. He dared not trust his life and limb to the members of his own union, and he fled from the platform, he had the protection of a cordon of police, forty plain clothes men and a squad of "cossacks" near at hand.

"No" Shakes Building.

In "explaining" the strike, Cappellini declared that one of the grievances which had been unsettled for months in violation of the agreement. He said the strike, and that men affected had returned to work. He demanded to know if he had made any mistake in the "cossacks" of the "Noes" fairly took the roof off the building.

Cappellini's entire record was attacked and raked from stem to stern, in office and out, and he declined to attend until a genuine riot threatened.

Affairs at Critical Stage.

CHARLIE HUGHES MUCH PLEASED AT VICTORY OVER GREAT BRITAIN

(Special to The Daily Worker)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Marked satisfaction was expressed at the state department today over the progress being made at Paris in impressing on the allied finance ministers the justice of the American claim to equal participation in the Dawes annuities.

Colonel James A. Logan reported to the department after his conference with Winston Churchill, British premier, that the American basis for an agreement had been reached.

Paris dispatches today say that after half an hour's session the meeting of the conference was adjourned until Monday, when reports will be received from certain experts who are to have informal meetings meanwhile.

The Lenin Memorial Meetings

The Lenin memorial meeting, to be held on Sunday afternoon, February 1, at Madison Square Garden, New York, with similar meetings over the whole nation, will be the answer of America's workers to the black stream of lies pouring from the plutocrats against Soviet Russia. Experience in the past has shown that this barrage of vicious propaganda is but the opening gun of a powerful mobilization of the forces of international capitalism for a combined assault on the Soviet Republic.

Preparatory to this coming onslaught, the plutocrats are trying to give the impression that insurrection and rebellion are afoot in Russia. The so-called revolution in Georgia was hailed with glee and later with disappointment when it proved to be an empty farce, engineered by foreign capital. More recently, the differences between Trotsky and the Communist Party of Russia have been pointed out as a sure sign of the hoped-for dissolution of the first workers' republic. The press keeps bringing daily reports of mutinies, riots, the jailing of Trotsky by Stalin, Stalin by Trotsky, and of both by Rykov, etc., ad nauseam.

The little empire of the Italians have completed an alliance whose main purpose is frankly, united action against Soviet Russia. Of course, this alliance is subsidized and sponsored by England, France and the United States, the strongholds of international capitalism. Even Germany is being coaxed to join this unholy alliance.

Herbert Hoover, who was highly instrumental in overthrowing the Soviet government of Hungary in favor of the present fascist regime, sings a hymn of praise to the prosperity of all countries except Russia and China, and even goes so far as to refuse to bow to the mandates of international capital. He, of course, does not mention the fact that the workers of Germany, Italy and Japan, three of the leading capitalist countries, are suffering most terribly today from low living standards due to low wages, long hours and the attacks on their organizations. In mighty England there are millions of unemployed and the price of bread is rising steadily. And in "happy" America the era of unemployment and wage cuts is just beginning.

But the workers of the world understand these attacks on the first workers' republic. They understand that Soviet Russia today stands as the bulwark against two centuries of world domination which the employing class desires to let loose. And the Lenin memorial meeting on Sunday afternoon, February 1, at Madison Square Garden will draw the workers from every part of Greater New York and they will take this opportunity to pledge their faith and loyalty to the first Soviet Republic and to the principles of Lenin.

Send in that new "sub" today!

Blood on Cappellini's Hands

It is not enough to know of the hundreds of deaths of coal miners resulting from preventable accidents; then the fact of the sweating life of this country, a slaughter which stains every lump of coal with the blood of the workers. But in Pennsylvania the anthracite mine operators are not satisfied with mere occupational murder of its miners.

In the last 15 hours two leaders of the "outlaw" strike, called against the operators and their servile tools in the district office of the U. M. W. of A., have been shot down on the street by assassins. It is a safe bet that Kinnabod, Cappellini, agent of the operators in the office of district president of the union, who fought the miners at every step, knows as well as anyone who are the murderers of Samuel Pace and Steve Freely.

The Pennsylvania coke-ers, "the coal and iron police" are a murderous lot. They have a reputation for just such assassinations. But they would never undertake them unless the coal operators had ordered it. And the coal operators, in turn, would never order such provocative acts, if they did not feel assured that the police in the office of the union could hold down the storm that would follow.

Cappellini has long prevented the anthracite miners from forcing adjustment of their grievances against the operators. They depend upon him to stop the floodgates of wrath at this new "grivance" of the coal diggers, or to divert it into channels harmful to the strike.

"The miners of the anthracite region will do well to check their rage for struggle, and to find a way to stop assassinations of their comrades," Mussolini would yield to the provocative acts of the assassins, and the first step in any plan of protection should be to hold Cappellini personally responsible for the safety of every strike.

The "Front Factory" Falls

The buybodies, reformers, liberals and socialist fraternities in New York are discomfited. "Mr. Zero" has been ordered out of the church. Great gobs of tears for the unemployed will doubtless course the cheeks of many a phillistine as he will wipe away the tears that he shed when he fell into the "factory" while the lecturer at the civic club expatiates on the decadence of christianity. The "front factory" has closed its doors. Another lockout.

This is how it came about: An enterprising and forward-looking lawyer with a bent for religion and a record of working valiantly to get every spare worker into the trenches during the war, became, after the war, suddenly compassionate for the "under dog." This humble, Urban LeDoux, preserved his religion intact during the war, not having gotten closer to it than the Brooklyn many yards. When he saw the millions of unemployed swarming the streets in 1921 he thought of what Jesus would start a flop-house.

Having an eye for publicity, he advertised himself for sale as a slave, tried to auction unemployed workers off a block, and after attracting attention from the press as "Mr. Zero," he used the proceeds of the milk of human kindness to provide a sort of God's "Night's Lodging" for the unemployed and state bread for the homeless and jobless. And that we object to these miserable victims of capitalism getting something to eat and a place to stay. But is soup and state bread something to eat, or a flop on the hard crusty benches, even the polished by pious pariahs, the equivalent of a real bed in a real home? The Communist believes that the jobless worker is entitled to more than a crust and a shift for the night on a pine plank. "Work or wages—unemployment at that!" This is the slogan of the Communists.

This bogging at lack dogs is a relic of slavery. This going, hat in hand, to long-faced hypocrites, ministers and churchmen, merchant and banker, whining for this soup and state bread is not the heritage of a class which built the world of industry and now stands homeless and starving, held back from revolt only by lack of organization which makes each individual fear the priest and the police more than the coroner. No! The Communists say that without organization and united action with the employed workers whose standard is threatened, the unemployed are not playing the part of men willing to strive for something, but the part of social wretches, pitiful but helpless.

Anyhow, "Mr. Zero" invaded the Camp newspaper, the editorial chair in New York City, and for a time held forth with a "front factory," where glib harlequin and tailoring was done, to make the unemployed presentable to prospective masters. But hope was shortlived.

God is irresponsible, and the "Constitutional Conference," Incorporated, announces that "Mr. Zero" must get out and stay out. Superintendent Bollins, LeDoux's butler in this corporation, says that if LeDoux's butt face crosses the threshold, he will call the blue-boys and have "Mr. Zero" put in the cooler for trespass.

The unemployed are thrust out with "Mr. Zero" to keep cool with Goddard and the "front factory" has declared a lockout.

Textile Wage Cuts

The Commercial and Financial Chronicle announces with uncontrived glee that fully 20 per cent of the 190,000 cotton mill operatives in New England are working under reduced wage scales as a result of the wage cutting movement after the election of President Coolidge. The prevailing cut is 10 per cent also in some mills it has run to 12 and 15 per cent.

Recent cuts include 700 workers in the Linwood and Saundersville cotton mills at Whitesville, Mass., 1,000 workers in the Benbow Mill, Co's mills in Adams, Mass., 200 employees of the Methuen Co., Methuen, Mass., 600 employees of the Nyanza Mills, Woonsocket, R. I., and 2,500 workers in the Nashua and Jackson mills, Nashua, N. H.

The Fall River cotton bureau complains that their shares paid only a 6 1/2 per cent dividend last year. These mills worked half time say that the 6 1/2 per cent means that earnings were at least on a 13 per cent basis. Of course, in 1920 these same mills paid a 20 per cent dividend and the present earnings represent a decrease, but is not a reduction of increased wages and hours, but because of labor markets.

The textile workers have had to struggle thru the slack period as best they could and are now facing a further deterioration in their incomes. They will find in the statement of the Workers (Communist) Party on the textile industry the method by which they can combat most effectively the new attack on their living standards that makes the Commercial and Financial Chronicle so jubilant.

The living thing in the spring aldermanic elections in Chicago will be the bunch of Communist candidates entered by the Workers Party. Its leadership will carry a real battle against the capitalists and the capitalist candidates.

Mussolini claims he has disarmed all his enemies, but the red spectre of Communism keeps him awake at night. He will carry a real battle against the capitalists and the capitalist candidates.

TEXTILE BOSSSES SLASH WAGES TO STARVATION LINE

Reaction Strikes at Fall River Poor

(By The Federated Press)
FALL RIVER, Mass., Jan. 8.—Fall River textile manufacturers have announced a 10 per cent wage reduction for their 25,000 employees, to go into effect Jan. 12, and the promise is made that the workers will get more work in consequence of the reduction.

Local unions of the American Federation of Textile Operatives are voting on the question of accepting or rejecting the cut. The action they take will probably set the pace for the workers in the neighboring cotton manufacturing city of New Bedford, where the American Federation of Textile Operatives is also functioning.

Bosses United Against Workers.
The announcement of the Fall River manufacturers is in line with action taken by textile employers in other parts of New England this fall and early winter. Cuts averaging 10 per cent have been forced through in such places as Manchester, New Hampshire; in the Everett mills of the Everett Co., Mass.; in the numerous mills of the Manville-Jencks and B. B. R. Knight combined plant, and in many small concerns in the several New England States.

Waiting in Prison Leaves Its Imprint On Sacco-Vanzetti
Looking at the photographs of Sacco and Vanzetti when they first were imprisoned almost five years ago and the pictures recently taken of them, it is hard to believe that the two men are the same. The photographs bring to mind the words of the young Sacco, a poet and philosopher: "In the latter photographs in the face of the once beautiful Sacco is real suffering and dejection. In the face of the soft, kindly Vanzetti we read defeat and resignation. They are two men who have been waiting in prison for years, but they are waiting for the opposite class, the capitalists."

The last act of this tragic drama of life and death for these two workers was commenced, on Sept. 30, when Judge Thayer delivered his verdict. The shadow of the electric chair rests dark and heavy on the heads of these two men.

Workers' organizations everywhere are holding protest meetings and taking up collections for the $25,000 fund which the Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee must raise to appeal the case to the Massachusetts supreme court and to the United States supreme court.

Rail Workers Pay Goes Down As R. R. Co.'s Profits Go Up

Savings of millions of dollars for railroad stockholders at the expense of railroad employees are reflected in railroad commerce commission statistics showing unit costs of class I carriers in October, 1924. The figures show that train employees received only 14.8 per cent gross gross ton miles compared with 16 1/2 in October, 1923. A reduction of nearly 10 per cent.

Similarly the amount paid to railway trainmen per 1,000 ton miles fell from 18.8c in October, 1923, to 17.7c in 1924 and the expenditure for locomotive repairs from 28.6c to 24.4c per 1,000 ton miles.

This last reduction, involving the total wages paid machinists, boiler makers, sheet metal workers, etc., amounted to about 15 per cent. These results are possible because increased efficiency and technical improvement reduce wholesale layoffs rather than shorter working hours for the men employed.

JOINT BAZAAR OF INTERNATIONAL WORKERS' AID AND LABOR DEFENSE COUNCIL MAKING FINE HEADWAY

NEW YORK CITY, Jan. 8.—The arrangements of the International Workers' Aid and Labor Defense Council for the joint bazaar, which is to take place at the Lyceum, 681 8th St. and 3rd Ave. from Feb. 11 to 14, are proceeding with great energy. The response that the call for support has met with is most encouraging.

The renewed attacks on the revolutionaries in Europe and India, the arrests and brutal treatment of the revolutionaries in Romania, Estonia, Lithuania—and the fanning up of the blood rage of Mussolini in Italy, together with the persecution of the Communists in Germany, the attack on the military position in Jugoslavia—are awakening the solidarity of the American workers.

The conviction of Conrad Rathenau, secretary of the Workers (Communist) Party, and the announcement that Conrad Rober Minor will next stand before the capitalist court of Michigan; the arrest of Conrad Lasker, editor of the Red Star, Hungarian labor paper, and the arrest of Valtner, editor of the Ohrana, the Czechoslovak labor paper, which took place only a short time ago, are scores of other comrades who are soon to be tried in Michigan and the hundreds of revolutionary workers who face deportation—all of these facts, and the arrest of Conrad Lasker, editor of the Ohrana, the Czechoslovak labor paper, which took place only a short time ago, are scores of other comrades who are soon to be tried in Michigan and the hundreds of revolutionary workers who face deportation—all
