SECOND CHICAGO DEFENSE MEETING SHOWS BIG GAIN

4,000 Tickets Out for Feb. 5 Show

The second full meeting of the Chicago conference for Defense and Relief, held at 722 Blue Island Ave. last Saturday, Jan. 10, showed a fine gain over the first meeting held a week previous. This time 25 organizations were represented as against 11 at the first meeting. There were included German, Polish, Greek, Finnish, South Slavic, Russian, Ukrainian, Czech, Slovak, six English branches (Ode, Wood, Northwest, North Side, Douglas Park, Midway, Cicero), three Lithuanian branches (No. 5, 2, and 7), Scandinavian Karl Marx and Lakeview, Nucleus No. 5, and Italian No. 1, and Young Workers' League No. 3, 5, 2, and 6.

Comrade Krass, acting local secretary for the conference, reported on the arrangements for showing "The Beauty and the Bolshevik" at the Grand Auditorium, Feb. 5. About 4,000 tickets had been placed in circulation about 20 tickets still were being placed. Advertisements posters were out and about $40 worth of advertising had been solicited for the program. The really successful 4,000 people would have to attend the show, and this means that every member of the party to bring out six fellow workers. Every delegate reported on the action of his organization on these points and special committees were appointed to cover affairs but to notice thru the delegates' reports.

The advertising program will be a 30-page book, 5x8 inches in size, giving the story of the film in word and picture, and containing advertisements from friendly business and professional men as well as resolutions from branches and fraternal organizations. Rates: Full page $20; half page $11 and so on down to card space $1.00. Every member should get at least one three-dollar ad. Copy to 19 S. Lincoln St., International Workers' Aid, but later than Jan. 20.

Defense Reports on New Drive. Comrade Maurer reported on the great Ruthenberg Defense Drive now being launched by the Labor Defense Council. Trade unions had already begun to send in resolutions of protest and speakers would be sent out to bring the case before the organized workers.

In answer to a question it was explained that defense and relief work could be carried on much better jointly than by two conferences, and this met with the enthusiastic approval of the delegates. Language committees were made up of the delegates from each language group and these will be enlarged into sections of the larger conference in charge of its work among the workers of their respective nationalities.

The next meeting will be held at 722 Blue Island Ave. next Saturday, Jan. 17, at 8:30 p. m.

Unions in Omaha Back Up W. P. in Child Labor Fight

(Special to The Daily Worker) OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 14.—The Omaha local Workers Party and the T. P. E. L. militants on the child labor question are again getting results. The Stone-Weaver Local Union here has passed the following resolution on the child labor question:

Resolution Against Child Labor. Whereas, the physical and moral well-being of the children of the working class in this country is being degraded by the exploitation of the child in the mines, mills, factories, and sweatshops to create larger profits for employers; and

Whereas, the exploitation of the children by the employers are enabled to reduce wages and lower the conditions of labor and to weaken the trade unions; and

Whereas, the children of the working class are forced to work because of the poverty of their parents, and a child labor law without government enforcement is of little value to school would have little value; therefore be it

Resolved: That we demand the immediate ratification by the state legislatures of the Child Labor Amendment to the Constitution, and that Congress shall immediately pass a law prohibiting the labor of children under eighteen years of age; and be it further

Resolved: That since the child labor amendment would be meaningless without government maintenance of the law for full maintenance of all school children of workers and small farmers, the funds for this purpose to come from special taxes on high incomes, and that they initiate fees be adjusted for the young workers in order that they may strengthen the unions against the employers; and be it further

Resolved: That our organization is ready to enter a common political struggle against child labor exploitation and for full government maintenance of the school children of workers and small farmers, and pledge ourselves to cooperate with other workingclass organizations to this end.

Adopted at a regular meeting of Omaha Local Journeymen Stone Cutters of North America, held at Luna Temple, Omaha, Nebraska, January 2, 1925.

And So We Call Upon District 1 to Report

In this selfsame corner of our daily, for the next twelve days, district after district of the Workers Party will report its accomplishments to date on its insurance campaign. We are sure that there is not a member in the party that has not heard about the insurance policies and how their sale will vitalize and make secure our daily.

But sure as we are of this, we also know that less than half of the party branches has responded with remittances to date. And so we are going to call the roll. We are going to have every branch, as its name is called, tell whether it has helped the daily to an eventful, successful 1925, how much it has helped, or whether its first dollar has still to reach us.

The Job Before District 1

District 1 has a total of 99 party branches. Of this number 42 have made remittances. But many of these 42 that have remitted have not nearly paid insurance policies to all their members.

There are 57 branches in District 1 that have not yet sent in a single dollar. We will be glad to hear from every one of them within the next two weeks.

The quota upon the basis of three dollars per member, given District 1, is $297. Of this amount the 42 branches that have remitted sent in a total of $282.75. There are an average of 2,110 members in District 1. At this the quota assigned is $3.00 per member. We have not yet received even $1.00 per member from this district.

We know that District 1 is going to make good. We expect that when next we print a report from District 1, the total remittances will average at least $1.00 per member. And then on to the $3.00 per member goal.

John J. Ballam, the district organizer, must be backed up in this campaign by every branch secretary, C. C. secretary, DAILY WORKER agent, federation district organizer—yes, by every member of the party in the district.

The position of the National Executive Committee of the Young Workers League was presented by Oliver Carlson, former representative of the American Federation of Labor to the E. C. of the Y. W. L., and the position of the minority of the National Executive Committee by Comrade N. Kaplan, a member of the National Executive Committee.

Allotting the Loot

The loot that is expected to flow into the coffers of the allied nations as a result of the work of the Dawes plan, has been allotted and the Communist press heaves a very audible sigh of relief. Everything is lovely and the goose hangs high.

The limitation of $350,000,000 as the share of the American robber class was eliminated and the House of Morgan will proceed now to take all the traffic will bear. The rest of the allied bankers will squawk, but it will do them little good. They all owe the enterprising firm of Morgan a lot of money that they cannot pay and for that reason will be treated like innocent debtors usually are.

The important thing about the conference was that it indicated a temporary sinking of the national antagonisms under the leadership of the bankers of Great Britain and the United States. Some sort of harmony is greatly desired by the finance capitalists who rule these nations in view of the serious crisis in Germany, Italy and the Balkans.

It is fairly certain that the continued and rapid improvement of the economic, political and international status of Soviet Russia and much to do with the handshaking that took place in Paris Tuesday between the allied delegates.

Signing the agreement were delegates representing Belgium, France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, the United States, with the little flag nations of Portugal, Greece, Rumania, Jugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Brazil.

We predict that this harmony will last until the first payment under the Dawes plan is due. Then there will be more discussion among this carrion crew.

The party has decided to devote one whole page weekly to the work of the Trade Union Educational League and the activities of the militants in the trade union movement of the United States. This is a very important innovation in developing the industrial work of our party, and the Communist active in the economic organizations of the workers should assist in making the proposed page the liveliest department of the DAILY WORKER and a powerful stimulant to our industrial activities.

What we want for this page is news of the class struggle, strikes, lockouts, stories of left wing battles with the reactionaries, elections in unions everything that deals with the struggle of the workers in the industries.

As our industrial director, Comrade Foster points out, the success of this innovation will be in the hands of the workers. The appeal to participate in making this page a success is directed to every reader of this paper and particularly to active leaders of the Trade Union Educational League.

All material intended for our special page should be sent directly to the national office of the T. U. E. L., 1113 West Washington Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

The Movies—An Industry

When the motion picture industry is mentioned one is inclined to think only of Hollywood and its contributions to the first pages of the yellow press. Nevertheless, the production cost of the industry, amounts paid out for labor and materials in making pictures, reached a total of $86,418,170 last year—an increase of 11.7 per cent over 1921.

It is evident from the above that there are great numbers of workers exploited in this industry, although the figures on profits are not given. Most of them are unorganized and are fed on romance rather than wages. Strikes are not of frequent occurrence in the movie industry, but as standardization and specialization make progress in line with all industrial development in the United States the romance will depart and the same sordidness of all of capitalist's undertakings will show through the silver screen that now hides from the movie fans the exploitation of thousands of workers that makes possible their pleasure.

We will soon begin to hear of union and non union films and read appeals from the workers who, in the popular conception of the movie industry, are supposed to feed on nectar and ambrosia.

Herbert Hoover, our well known secretary of commerce, has had another brainstorm. He claims to have found a method of lowering the high cost of living without reducing either wages or profits. We venture the prediction that he will revise his plan to allow for the reduction of wages, but that his profits will be let severely alone to soar to new heights in conjunction with the aforesaid h. c. l.

The Wobblies and Their Song Book

The present controversy among the I. W. W. has caused the extreme right wing to be forced out of headquarters. As a result we notice that the twenty-first edition of the "Little Red Song Book," which has just been published, contains "Casey Jones" (a little censored), "Should I Ever Be a Leader" (Not in the Red Flag I Will Fight) "Might Is Right" and some other of the battling songs which made the old Wobblies famous, but which have been taboo since John Grady's counter-revolutionary faction seized power in 1922.

Merely changing a few words in the official hymn book doesn't accomplish much in itself, but it may indicate a change in sentiment.

The Red International Affiliation Committee and the Workers' Party have been urging for a long time that the I. W. W. abandon their pacifist position.

The new edition is supposed to be dedicated to the Centralia defendants of the capitalist class dictatorship, but there is little to indicate it except three words on the cover and Ralph Chaplin's poem to Wesley Everest on the first page.

The spirit of militancy which resides in the rank and file of proletarians unpolluted by frenzied dogmatism, and which crops out occasionally in the left wing leadership between its moods of "tired radical" cynicism that denounces all inward prompting to action and turns the temperamental rebel from the political (class) struggle to pornography and playing the races—this reservoir of militancy in the ranks of the I. W. W. has yet to be organized and put into action. If the I. W. W. is to show any true respect for the fighters of Centralia.

If this fertile field of revolutionary action is not to go to seed, and if the remnant of revolutionary radicalism is to justify its existence and do anything more constructive than "wanting action" in theoretical circles and curse Jim Rowan, it will have first to solidify itself by uniting definitely around the program of the Red International Affiliation Committee, and secondly move forward in an organized militant struggle against the bourgeois ideas and their spokesmen.

It is sufficiently shameful a comment upon the revolutionary element of the I. W. W. that at this moment when Ford and Stahr are half forgotten in Polish exile and hundreds of the bars of St. Quentin and, not to mention more, of the eight Centralia victims are doing what amounts to a life sentence, all victims of the capitalist dictatorship, that the membership should permit its servant, its general secretary, treasurer, etc., to insult the memory and the work of those who died in open struggle as to deliver a speech defending capitalist "democracy" under the guise of an attack on the theory of proletarian dictatorship.

How long will the membership of this party bear the intention of a dictatorship of a few mediocrities who, incapable of taking the offensive against the capitalist, and cynically indifferent of the profound need of unity among all working class organizations in defense against the capitalist dictatorship, beg to acquire a little personal notoriety, to be crowned with a little flickering fame by taking the offensive against the Communists, and in so doing to place themselves in a position of class struggle with the class enemy of the workers to prevent and disrupt the unity of their forces?

The answer to this is the answer to the question: Is it a sufficient proof of a revolutionary policy in present day affairs to put Wesley Everest's, Joe Hill's and Frank Little's pictures in Ralph Chaplin's poems in a song book, while the organization is taught to forget and instructed never to apply the policies of Everest, Hill and Little, and a spanking kick of inferiorities are permitted to remain in the leadership, in the service of the master class instead of making them an aid to the organization?

Not until the revolutionary elements accept the idea, the aid and program of the left wing bloc or organized around the T. U. E. L. will the Wobblies stop from going forward to worse.

Cracking the Landis Award

The Landis award, touted by the open shoppers as the harbinger of peace in the Chicago building industry, has tied up the work on nine school buildings. The school board has let contracts for glass work to a firm employing scabs and the inevitable result has been a strike by the Glaziers' Union.

The contracting firm in question, William Hall and company, has broken its agreement with the Glaziers' Union to employ no Landis award scabs and the strike will be no glass work done until the agreement is lived up to.

The strike comes shortly after the glowing review of the work of the scab Landis award board for the past year, prepared by its secretary, and shows that contrary to the boast made that the building trades unions had been whipped into line, there is still considerable fight left in them and that only the traitorous conduct of some union officials has made it possible for the Landis award to be a factor of any strength whatever in Chicago.

The exportation of monkeys from India for the gland trade in Europe coincides with the frantic efforts of European capitalism to restore its virility by the injection of such a desperate remedy as the Dawes plan into its rapidly hardening arteries.

A banker in Bloomington, Illinois, was fooled by two robbers into believing they were bank examiners. He should be expelled from the bankers union at once under the by law which provides that bankers are to do all the fooling.

FARMERS PLEAD VAINLY FOR AID FROM COOLIDGE

No Relief Is Expected From Congress
(Special to The Daily Worker)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 14.—The plan of President Coolidge to quiet a riotous and angry mob of farmers by legislation for relief of the farmers received a setback in the senate when democrats and independent republicans, many of whom must cater to their rural constituency, raised a plea for farmer relief legislation.

Senator Borah of Idaho, who recently led Coolidge in defeating the pay raises for postal employees, called for legislation to provide for immediate relief for the farmers. Borah's action will not cause any definite break in the Coolidge administration. It is the hope, as Coolidge understands it, that Borah will make a grandstand play for the benefit of his farmer support in Idaho, even if his talk brings no beneficial results to the farmers.

Administration leaders are trying to prevent the taking of a cabinet vote of congress to deal with farm relief legislation. Coolidge made embarrassing promises to the farmers in his recent election campaign, and in order to save his face, the bankers and industrial capitalists who are in control of the national control of the farmers' cooperative marketing association have been spreading disinformation.

LENIN MEMORIAL MEETINGS

The spirit in which the first anniversary of Lenin's death is to be commemorated is not one of mourning, but of living proof of the fact that while Lenin is dead, Leninism lives. The living reality of Leninism, our common goal, the Communist state.

In the United States we must make these meetings a real demonstration of party strength, of Leninist following devotion to our greatest leader and teacher.

It is important that every city in which there is a party organization hold a Lenin Memorial meeting. Such meetings have already been arranged and speakers assigned. Every party unit which has not already done so should immediately arrange to hold a Lenin Memorial meeting and send into the national office of the meeting, name of the person in charge, and state whether local speakers are available or whether assignment should be thru the national office.

Following is a list of meetings which have been arranged: Wednesday, Jan. 21, Chicago, Ill., at 8 p. m., at Ashland Auditorium, Ashland and Van Buren Sts. Speakers: Browder, Dunne, Engel, and Swaback.

Kansas City, Mo., hall to be announced. Saturday, Jan. 24, at 8 p. m., Hippodrome Hall, corner Pine and Madison Sts. Speaker to be announced.

Rever. Mass. Ex-Rev. Hall, Shirley and Walnut Aves., at 8 p. m. Speaker, Ex-Rev. Hall. Saturday, Jan. 24, Philadelphia, Pa., at 8 p. m., at the New Haven Hotel, near Spring Garden St. Speaker to be announced.

South Bend, Ind., at 8 p. m., at the South Bend Hotel, 1218 W. Colfax Ave. Speaker to be announced. Milwaukee, Wis., at 8 p. m., at the Auditorium. Speakers: Foster and DeLoach.
