SMALL'S FAMOUS GRAFT TRIAL IS AGAIN DELAYED

Governor's Case Up in December

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 23.—No decision in the suits against Gov. Len

Small will be reached at least until the December term of the supreme court. That was apparent today when the court adjourned the October term without action on Small's appeal from the decision of the dangerous county court. Small is a holdover, liable for an accounting of approximately $1,000,000 interest alleged to have been received on state funds. Small, while state treasurer, was charged with loaning to the Grant Park Bank during the war, which in turn was said to have been loaned to big meat packers at a high rate of interest.

The state constituted the Grant Park Bank a "dummy" institution, organ-

The civil proceeding against Small was instituted at the close of the criminal prosecution in Waukegan in 1912. At that time Small was indicted for conspiracy and embezzlement growing out of alleged irregularities when he was state treasurer. A change of venue shifted the case from the Sangamon circuit court to Lake county. After days of terrific legal clashes the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

Convicted in Civil Court
When litigation to the civil suit

Small's attorneys immediately took an appeal to the supreme court, which

Attorney General Carlstrom, newly installed in office, called upon his predecessor Edw. J. Brundage, who instituted both the criminal and civil proceedings to handle the case in the higher court.

The combination of Charles H. Deneen, former governor and now U. S. senator, and Edward J. Brundage, known as the Deneen-Brundage faction are after the scalp of Small. The act that Small was elected by Wm. Hale Thompson caused him to break with Deneen in spite of the fact that Small served as state treasurer.

Charles W. Hadley, former state attorney of Dupage county and other Grudge aids were placed in active direction of the prosecution and prepared the final brief and argument.

God and a Polish God

By REGINA MYROSKI
MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 23—

When we Reds disagree on some issue it is not to be wondered at, as we do not claim to be infallible, but when the catholic church which does

In this town there are two catholic churches, one Irish and one Polish. But it develops that they have different ideas as to what constitutes sin.

The Irish catholic church believes that it is a mortal sin and an abomination of the holy Sabbath day to indulge in such social pastimes as dancing on Saturday nights and that anyone who practices it is barred from the kingdom of heaven.

The Polish catholics on the other hand not only think it is a mortal sin and not only think it proper and innocent fun but the priest goes so far as his approval as to give public dances himself and advertise them as given by the Polish catholic church. The question before the house is: Are the Polish catholics to be sent to sell by an Irish catholic god?"

ATION, LAUNCH, SPEED-UP BY SYSTEM, WAGE CUTS AND THE BLACKLIST IN PASSAIC MILLS

By LOUIS KOVACS.

ARTICLE I.

On N. Y. Oct. 28.—A few months ago the textile barons decided to cut wages by cutting overhead.

The plan started in the New England states, and since then the waves of reduction traveled from east to west. The tolling sales of the mills have now seen to a crossroad where they have to choose, either to reduce wages, or to close down.

Under and allow more present than last year.

The Passaic situation.

The Bostwick Worsted Mills and Garfield Mills under the control of the Bostwick Consolidated Mills, which was organized in 1915. The 25 percent reduction was made in 1915. The 18 percent reduction was made in 1916. With this there is a reduction of 4.30 workers were cut down.

promises of letter envelopes at the end of each month, the teachers will be greeted with the direct opposite, a cut in wages. These figures show that the various divisions of teachers will be given a direct cut in wages until the seventh year of teaching when they will begin to receive an increase. In other words the money will be taken from one division to be given to another. For the increase other changes in the school system will be made. The increase of the salaries will be the school system will be made. The increase of the salaries will be the school system will be made.

The Chicago Teachers' Federation has gone on record as being opposed to the salary schedule. Their position should, however, carry with it definite recommendations for an increase in wages which would include all the grades individually.

Romanian Royalty and Romanian Peasants

Queen Marie of Romania writes for the Hearst papers. She gives a special description of her life and her suffering under the rule of the king as the best way in which to win their dropping the thought of a revolution.

In a recent issue she says: "When you are very tired and rest, and contentment into your mind, rest your body, forget all unnecessary food and activity—and see how it helps. You will eat too much soup. This was said as often as it is, it is, yet you go on eating, overeating. Try my recipe occasionally—less food and more rest."

In the same issue the queen writes of the king which inspiring queen advice is furnished, there is a news story which reads as follows:

KISHINEFF, Oct. 28.—The trial before military courts of 300 Bessarabians for their share in the Communist disturbances at Kishineff, began in September. The trial is the first of the kind in the country. The trial is the first in the court of the old turned prison overlooking the town. The general public is admitted and many peasant women are in attendance. The prisoners are most peasants, young and middle-aged, belonging to Moldavia, Romania, Bulgaria and Albanian nationalities. These peasants have been suffering from the effects of the drought and the fact that the king's government of Romania could do nothing.

"Try to get back the land which the landlords, aided by the Romanian monarchy, had deprived them—trying to divide up the big estates so that each peasant and his family might have enough to make a living."

"Many peasant" women listen to their husbands being cross-examined.

These peasant women and their children have been without the support of their husbands for more than a year. They have listened to the cruel prison and the suffering of their husbands of the military, to the groans and cries of their husbands under the military. Their husbands have been burned by the military and whole villages have been destroyed. They are all half starved and many of them have died of starvation.

But, says the Romanian Queen Marie, "we eat too much soup. Try my recipe occasionally—less food, bread, fruit, less relaxation."

Queen Marie of Romania, who is a Catholic, advised the French peasants, if they had no bread, to eat cake. The king of France—the country whose ruling class finances the Romanian army of occupation—is queen commander-in-chief of the peasants to get out.

Queen Marie Antoinette's head rolled into the bloody basket under the guillotine. The king of France is the head of the dead money of the dead king with grace, in memory of his advice to them.

Romania and all thru the Balkans history is setting the stage for a successful revolt of the town workers and poor peasantry. Only with the aid of the imperialist powers have these revolts been crushed. The great power of the world, the United States, in Romania just as in an earlier period they came to the aid of the French rulers.

The French writes for the foolish women of the middle class and advice thereby to the subsidy paid to her royal entourage, the enemies of the workers and peasants.

The imperialist powers and the monarchs, fear the new force of the workers and peasants. They are afraid of the new force which inspires and leads the bleeding peasantry, the workers and the Lenin people.

The Soviet republics send into the villages armed detachments of workers (in the first place the most advanced) from the centers who carry out the countryside, rally to their side the poorer elements, organize and enlighten and help them to SUPPRESS THE RESISTANCE OF THE BOURGEOISIE.

The tide of working class revolt rises all thru Europe once again. The murder hands of the ruling class have once again been able to free from the Romanian peasantry.

Queen Marie will do well to stay in Dinard and Deauville let the outside world see the queen's position. She is a Catholic, she apply to her the queenly advice about overeating—without the soup, bread, fruit, and relaxation.

LaFollette—Unknown Quantity

Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., who administered such a salutary defeat to opposing candidates in the special senatorial election held to fill the vacancy created by the death of his father, is the object of the attention on the part of the old guard supporting the Republican party.

Collier's stalwart supporter, Butler, along with Senators Edge, Ewing and virtually all the members of the regime at Washington, have received personal friendship from LaFollette. They are trying to persuade him, on promise of committee assignments, better than the increasing number of clerks, to abandon the insurgent.

This is the desperate effort of the old guard majority out of the paper majority the republicans have had for the past six years. The former insurgent bloc has been reduced to three members—Senator Brockway, ex-Francis of North Dakota and the ex-Speaker of Minnesota. If young LaFollette declines to go "insurgent" it means that the republicans will be in a minority against the coalition of insurgents and moderates.

This situation represents a paradox. In domestic politics a coalition of democrats and republican insurgents will fight the Coe bloc as properly as the Coe bloc will fight the LaFollette group as a means of maintaining an axe to go before the country in the congressional elections next year, while in foreign affairs there is the interests of financial capital against the foreign policy of the republicans supporting the industrialists who oppose the world.

Will the democratic party palliate its southern and middle west petty bourgeois elements for the sake of a united party, and will it carry out the foreign policy of its eastern sector representing the House of Morgan?

The Propaganda of Marxism and Leninism

By Herman (Be)

THE A. B. C. of Capitalist Propaganda. The essence of the capitalist propaganda, or in other words the propaganda for the capitalist system, is explained clearly, and in a manner easily comprehensible, in the theoretical part of the book. The Communist and capitalist propaganda, and the propaganda of the capitalist system, is explained clearly, and in a manner easily comprehensible, in the theoretical part of the book.
