TO LIBERTY

Not that I love thy children whose dull eyes

See nothing save their own unlovely
woe,

Whose minds know nothing, nothing care to know—

But that the roar of thy Democracies, Thy reigns of Terror, thy great An-archies,

Mirror my wildest passions like the sea. . . .

Revolution

ANYONE can write Revolution—Revolution is written

By pale young men with the new conventional mind;

Though it causes, indeed, no such havoc 'mid humankind

As Samson's did when the Philistines were smitten.

It is easy to preach Revolution—Revolution in pink reviews,

Or flourish a Phrygian cap from the top of a steeple:

But if ever it came to an uprising of the people, How many pale poets would stand in the leaders' shoes?
